Newton Reaches Quota In Third War Loan Drive

Citizens of Newton have reason to be proud of maintaining their reputation of being one of the most patriotic communities in the country by going over the top in the third War Loan Drive. It has not been easy to meet the quota set of $8,046,000 as that meant a per capita purchase of virtually $115.00 worth of bonds by every man, woman and child. The splendid response to the appeals of the Newton War Finance Committee assisted by many volunteer workers brought about the desired result.

May I extend the Committee's congratulations and sincere thanks for their cooperation and courteous support.

NEWTON WAR FINANCE COMMITTEE.
VINCENT C. STANLEY,
Vice-Chairman.

Mayor Goddard To Be Unopposed At Election

Five Contests For Alderman-At-Large One Contest For School Committee

Arrival of the deadline for filing nomination papers Tuesday night revealed that Mayor Paul M. Goddard will be unopposed as a candidate for a third term on the ballot at the Newton city election Nov. 2.

The deadline for filing papers also disclosed five contests for alderman-at-large and one for the School Committee. There are no contests for ward aldermen. The only contest for the School Committee is in Ward 4, where Mrs. Emily E. Kermath of 200 Islington rd., Auburndale, is running against the incumbent, Winslow R. Howland, who was elected by the Board of Aldermen and the School Committee last year to fill a vacancy.

Three Ward 5 Candidates
In the race for alderman-at-large from Ward 5 there are three candidates for the two places. Alderman Wendell R. Bauckman is running for re-election and the other candidates are Sydney Bayler, 3 Bradford rd., Newton Highlands, and Robert S. Fifield, 56 White Pine rd., of Newton Upper Falls. Alderman John Temperley, the other incumbent, is not seeking re-election.

In each of the other four alderman-at-large contests there are three candidates for the two places.

Files Protest
Morahan announced that he will file a formal protest with the Board of Registrars of Voters against the candidacy of Alderman Schofield because the latter's nomination papers describe him as a candidate for re-election. Morahan contends that Schofield, having been elected by the Board of Aldermen to fill a vacancy, has never been elected by the voters and therefore has no right to describe himself as a "candidate for re-election."

Willard L. McKenzie, 1198 Chestnut st., Newton Upper Falls, filed nomination papers for alderman-at-large from Ward 5, but was ruled out of the ballot for lack of sufficient certified signatures. The list of candidates whose names will appear on the ballot follows:

Services Held For Beloved Pastor

Rev. John A. Sheridan Died Suddenly Last Friday

Rev. John A. Sheridan, pastor of the Church of Our Lady Help of Christians, Newton, died suddenly at the rectory on Friday morning, October 1.

Fr. Sheridan recently observed his 78th birthday and as he had apparently been in good health, his death came as a shock to his parishioners and many friends.

He was born in Watertown, Mass., and attended the Watertown schools. After graduating from Boston College in 1890 he studied for the priesthood at St. John's Seminary. He was ordained on December 21, 1894, and celebrated his first mass in St. Patrick's Church, Watertown.

His first assignment as a curate was at St. Thomas' Church, Jamaica Plain where he remained for 18 years. He served as pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Holbrook, from 1913 to 1917 when he was appointed pastor of the Sacred Heart Church in Lynn, remaining there until he came to the Newton parish in 1935 as irremovable parish priest.

Fr. Sheridan was state chaplain of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and chaplain of Middlesex Court, M. C. O. F. and of Newton Council, K. of C. He was active in the work of the Catholic Charitable Bureau in Newton and was greatly interested in the Community Chest and other civic organizations. On several occasions he had addressed the selectees at the end-of-year ceremonies held at the Newton City Hall.

He is survived by three sisters, Miss Margaret and Miss Sue Sheridan of Newton, Mrs. John Forrest of Watertown; three brothers, Philip H. of Waltham, Charles H. of Wellesley and G. Frank Sheridan of Belmont, also by a nephew, John A. Sheridan of New York and four nieces, Mrs. Robert E. Cunniff of Wellesley, Mrs. Fred Burrans of Brookline, Miss Kathleen Sheridan of Belmont and Sister Vincent of the Convent of Mercy, Dover, New Hampshire.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at the Church of Our Lady. A children's mass celebrated at 8 a. m. by Rev. Russell T. Haley and at 9 o'clock a solemn mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Robert P. Barry, pastor of St. Clement's Church, Somerville, assisted by Rev. William Shaughnessy, pastor of Our Lady's Church, Concord Junction, deacon; Rev. Thomas Reynolds of St. Matthew's Church, Dorchester, subdeacon; Rev. John Quirk, master of ceremonies; Rev. Alfred Downes, Rev. Edward Desmond, Rev. James Manning, acolytes. The eulogy was given by Rev. Michael Scanlon of St. Rose's Church, Chelsea. The music for the mass was by the priests' choir. Miss Florence Herlihy, organist played at the close of the mass and Franklin Field was the soloist.

An honor guard of eight members of Bishop Cheverus Assembly was led by John P. Gallagher. The honorary bearers were members of Our Lady's Conference. St. Vincent de Paul Society led by Charles H. Murphy.

More than 125 clergymen were present, also groups of sisters representing several religious orders. There was a large delegation from Bishop Cheverus Assembly, 4th Degree. Representations from other organizations were led by the following: Division 22, ladies (Continued on page 6)

Petitioners Present Arguments At Meeting

At the meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday evening a hearing was held at which representatives of factories located on Rumford ave. in Newton and Waltham, appeared to urge the construction and acceptance of that street from Lexington st. to West Newton, to the Waltham line.

Mayor Paul M. Goddard had previously recommended that the sum of $9,500 be appropriated for this project under the General Law whereby the entire cost would be borne by the city.

Alderman John Temperley who is opposed to the project questioned the proponents on its various phases and also called attention to the fact that Mayor Sinclair Weeks had recommended this improvement 9 years ago and later found it advisable to withdraw his recommendation.

Alderman Charles E. Hughes suggested that the factory owners contribute to the cost of the project. Lester Perrine, owner of one of the plants on the Waltham side, who is a resident of Newton, suggested that the city could not legally accept a contribution from the factory owners. Alderman Hughes referred the matter to City Solicitor Joseph W. Bartlett, who said in his opinion it would be legal for the city to accept such contributions. Perrine said that 200 persons had signed a petition for this project and he urged that the improvement be made as a "wartime project."

Other arguments were that because of the dangerous condition the street is now in the fire apparatus is not allowed to travel on it. The street railway company cannot operate their buses over it and motorists employed in the various plants located in the section must make a detour to reach their places of employment.

The board appropriated an additional sum of $7,500 for garage and repair shop expense of the Street Department. Alderman Carroll J. Hoffman voted against this appropriation after expressing his disapproval of the practice of seeking additional funds near the close of the year saying that in his opinion departments should come within their budgets.

The following appropriations were also made by the board: (Continued on page 6)

About 500 persons attended the reception including Mayor and Mrs. Paul M. Goddard, members of the school committee, Walter Downey, headmaster of the Boston English High School and predecessor of Mr. Warren as commissioner of education, teachers, principals and employees of the Newton School Department.

Name Rep. Herter To Committee

The appointment of Rep. Christian A. Herter of the Tenth District of Massachusetts to membership on the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee was agreed to by the House today on motion of Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., the Republican leader. Mr. Herter fills the vacancy on the Republican side of the committee occasioned by the death of Rep. Francis D. Cukin of New York, and his appointment on this committee gives representation to New England where heretofore there has been none. Rep. Schuyler Otis Bland, Democrat, of Virginia, is committee chairman, and Rep. Richard J. Welch of California is the ranking Republican member.

"The legislation which lies within the province of the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee has always been important," said Mr. Herter today, "and of special and direct concern to Massachusetts and her sister states in New England, the cradle of the merchant shipping trade in the early days of the Republic and a region where fishing has always been a major industry. The post-war problems of the American Merchant Marine, its conversion from war to peace, as well as the post-war safeguards for our fishing industry are bound to require the most careful attention of Congress. I welcome the opportunity to serve on the committee of the House which will deal with these matters."

TIERED GRASS
A FRESH START

Re-vitalize "summer weary" grass with a fall application of Milorganite. Unlike most plants, grass grows vigorously in the fall... provided dwindling soil fertility is restored by generous feeding. Milorganite is the ideal fertilizer to use because it contains all the elements needed by grass.

Golf clubs use more Milorganite than any other fertilizer. They know from long experience that it is the ideal fertilizer. Profit by their example. Fertilize with Milorganite this fall for greener, more luxuriant lawns now and NEXT year, too.

Little Linda Urweida, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore an old-fashioned blue satin frock with bonnet of matching tulle and carried a tiny bouquet of sweet heart roses tucked in among shirings of lace.

Clark Wadsworth Fisher, brother of the groom and member of the USNR, just completing his senior year at Yale University, was the best man. Carl Otto Benz, brother of the bride, and Donald Clarke Fisher, brother of the groom, served as ushers.

Mrs. Benz wore a blue gown with navy accessories and an orchid corsage, while Mrs. Fisher chose a brown and aqua gown with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride attended school in New Jersey, and the G. N. Y. A. Academy of New York. She studied medical art at New York University, and was assistant medical artist at Medical Center, N. Y. city. At present she is a student of fine arts at the Grand Central Art School of New York, and is employed in defense work by the American Tool Engineering Company of New York City. Corporal Fisher was graduated from Bowdoin College in June, 1942, magna cum laude in history, won the Sewal Latin prize, and was one of the commencement speakers. He spent 6 months at Westfield, Mass., in the Signal Training Corps of the U. S. Army, and just completed a specialized course at the Bell Laboratories in New York city. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

Melrose Pins 21-0 Defeat On Newton; Tigers Disappoint Drenched Fans

By SAUL EXELBERT

Rain, mud and a tricky Melrose High offense all had a hand in riding roughshod over a poorly fielded Newton eleven 21-0 last Saturday at Melrose. It was the second start for the Orange and Black and their first loss.

In just the opposite of the Rindge-Tech holocaust by the "paper powerful" Tiger squad two weeks ago, the Knapman contingent was just a "Tech" team last Saturday. They couldn't match the kind of hipper-dipper Melrose offense nor stop the ever-driving Red Raider parade of first downs.

The soggy gridiron affair was actually a first half battle. In the twenty minutes of two quarters, the Dave Gavin outfit marched and passed to three scores, blocked a kick for a safety and kept the Tiger advance far enough away from their goal zone. It took just 12 minutes for the Melrose Raiders to commando a 21 total. The second half saw every Melrose bench man and practically the complete Orange and Black sub hands in the game with neither second squads doing any thing damaging.

Because the game was as one sided as the Rindge tussle last week, no Newton man was singled out for all around play. It was just a Melrose day.

The Raiders elected to kick off and the boot went to Roberts who galloped to the 45 yard line. On the first snap, Recco, Walsh, and southpawed a pass to Shaw but the throw was short. Recco tried the line for naught and Roberts went around left end for three. Fourth and Recco had to boot out, but the kick was poor and Melrose took over on their own 37 yd. line.

The Gavin squad tried the line twice and only made six yards, thus kicking on the third scrimmage. And here was break number one. The punt went to Recco on the run who fumbled on the Newton 30. A pile up found Melrose covering.

Their first play netted 16 yards, the second 19. A third down play was a touchdown pass that went far over the end zone. But on fourth and last, quarterback Brennan paved a hole for team-mate Sheridan to the two-yard line and a first down.

Recco went over for the first score and the ball back to Melrose on the Newton 37. The Melrose break gave them the ball in Newton territory as the first quarter ended one play after.

Melrose took their second scrimmage at the start of the second half and the right end and Melrose took advantage of their second break began to roll.

Great Demand For Women Workers

The demand for women to work in industries located in and around Newton is increasing daily. Mr. Wright, manager of the local United States Employment office of the War Manpower Commission, said yesterday when talking of the vast need for men and women workers in the local area.

He pointed out that those who are interested in learning of opportunities in vital industries may inquire and register at the local office at 290 Centre st., Newton. "This office has all the facilities that may be obtained at the Boston office," he declared. "Newton residents may avoid expense and save time by calling here for employment."

There are over 30,000 employment openings throughout this vicinity, according to the War Manpower Commission, in all types of industries, and most of them are for production workers.

Young women will find openings on almost any shift they desire with local firms Mr. Wright said. Various companies in the vicinity offer an evening shift for women who are not free to take day or night shifts. Such companies will employ women to work from five in the evening until eleven.

Along with employment opportunities in vital industries and civil service information, the office covers other fields. There, information concerning jobs in the Boston Navy Yard may be obtained. The Yard offers various types of work and will take totally unskilled workers and pay them while they are being trained. Many other firms also offer the same opportunity to those totally unskilled.

"I want to stress that this local office can give all of the employment services that may be found in the Boston office," Mr. Wright said. "It is open to all who wish to learn about registering and obtaining employment."

NEWTON'S CITY ELECTION

That Newton has good government is generally conceded without debate. The absence of opposition for the office of mayor reflects the public's attitude toward the executive department.

That the legislative branch has contests in only five wards (and the school committee in only one ward), likewise is indicative of the aldermanic caliber. It is not, however, just by chance that able men are elected to the Board of Aldermen. Few self-seekers ever attain that honor. Few, if any, have crashed the gate until a long record of civic, charitable, or public interest has established their position in the community. When their reputations are made in minor capacities and the neighbors know them for their accomplishments, then comes the spontaneous drafting to serve the city in positions of responsibility. It is commendable for old-timers and new-comers to be willing to give of their time and ability, but it is hardly compatible with the Newton custom to elect the new and untried. If their good qualities are enduring there will be ample future opportunities for their services when thoroughly acclimated.

We therefore urge that careful inquiry be made regarding all candidates for office at the city elections, November second.

Kiwanis Activities

The regular weekly meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club was held at the Newton Y. W. C. A. Tuesday noon. After the luncheon, President James Riggs made some announcements concerning items of interest. He mentioned that on November 9th a joint meeting of Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis Clubs was being sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club. Ed Pease will speak at that time to the combined clubs on the subject "Know America."

President "Jim" also announced the appointment of Jim Gallagher, International Trustee, to continue as Chairman of the International Committee on Laws and Regulations. He also spoke about the fact that 25 youngsters from the Peabody Home were last week taken to the Shrine Circus.

A Committee on Elections was appointed, consisting of Ed Pease, Doc Paul, Jim Gallagher, Doc Norley and Jack Janse.

One of the highlights of the after-luncheon program was a special rendition of "East Side West Side" by a quintet made up of four visiting guests from the Newton Fire Department, plus the local "spark," George Van Buren. The four visiting firemen were Chief John L. Keating, Assistant Deputy John E. Corcoran, James Lord and Bob Lucas.

President "Jim" then asked Ben Louis, Chairman of the Program Committee, to announce next week's program and introduce the speaker of the day. He then announced that for the Columbus Day meeting he had secured a speaker from the Bethlehem-Hingham Shipyards, who will speak on the subject "Ships for Victory" and will show some movies as part of his presentation.

Ben then introduced, in the absence of Chief Richard Salamone, Jack Rhyn, Aid to the Chief of the Needham Fire Department. Mr. Rhyn showed two reels of colored movies, which dealt largely with the training and equipment. Throughout the movie Mr. Rhyn commented on the work being done by the department and on the pictures themselves. Some very fine shots of the buildings and equipment of the Needham Fire Department were included in the reels. Mr. Rhyn explained the various pieces of apparatus and their uses. He spoke about the testing of the equipment, particularly the hose, which has to be tested for 200 pounds pressure before it can be used.

Another interesting item concerned the "smoke house," which is nothing more or less than a cellar-like structure that is filled with smoke from cartridges and is used in training the firemen to enter smoke-filled buildings and how to use the gas masks for their own protection.

There were several scenes showing the testing of equipment, which has to meet very stringent requirements. The muzzle velocity of the hose has to meet certain standards, as well as the various pumps and other gadgets, which are part of the equipment.

Mr. Rhyn explained the service which the Fire Department renders in connection with the swimming areas in Needham. One swimming place, in particular, has been equipped with a regular fire call box from which calls for assistance may be sent to the Fire Department.

The cooperation rendered by the Fire Department in connection with the Police Department was also emphasized, especially in case of drownings.

Some of the later scenes in the picture showed fire hazards, such as rubbish, obstructed fire escapes, and so on, which are likely to endanger life and property. Regular inspections are made and all efforts are directed toward eliminating these hazards by educating the public with regard to fire prevention.

After Mr. Rhyn's presentation, George Van Buskirk, vice president, expressed the appreciation of the club to Mr. Rhyn for contributing to the program and expressed his best wishes to the department.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor of The Newton Graphic:

In addition to the letter about the dangerous traffic hazard at Cleveland Circle, that you so kindly printed in your issue of Sept. 23, the following notes may help in solving this dangerous crossing.

Many people do not know that the Boston City line and the Newton line is about 1400 feet East of Hammond st., and think and say that the Easterly side of the Circle is Boston. The Middlesex & Boston buses stop on the Western side of the Circle, which is also in Boston. The passengers must stream across this Circle, dodging the street cars, buses, the heavy trucks and every kind of vehicle which is free to go without stoplights of any kind.

We have noticed that the Putnam and Western ave. buses pass around the Circle and stop and deposit their passengers in front of the closed drug store. They then pass around the central plot to the other side of the highway and then take up their waiting position for passengers at the same location as the M. & B. buses.

Now the space that was planned years ago for horse riding is now occupied by a taxi stand and private parking. There are signs for 5 taxis and just East of this stand is the general parking space used for shoppers or persons who take the trolleys into Boston.

Now the problem is so simple that a permit to cross the Cleveland Circle should be granted immediately if necessary, and an extension of the traffic permit should be granted right away. If there are permits upon the Horse Riding area, then they should be allocated to some other portion, and allow the buses of both lines to take on passengers without the desperate traffic hazard that now exists. If those who use these buses would realize how simple the solution would be, there would be a decided demand for the improvement. Let us hope some constructive action can be forthcoming.

Bill Cunningham in Sunday's Herald describes the plight of a soldier who having been drafted is, through no fault of his own, rejected and comes back to his home to find his job in possession of another man.

Bill declares that the community put him into the army and now that he has been rejected it is the business of the community to give him his old job or another as good. The Mayor's Office assures me that a rejected soldier who applies to Mr. Edmund Dunagan, at the City Hall, Head of the Soldiers' Relief, will receive immediate help.

NEWTON PALS MEET ON FOREIGN SOIL

A V-Mail letter has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Cossaboom of 22 W. Main st., Auburndale, from Cpl. Chester D. Price, formerly of West Newton, saying that he met their son PFC Charles B. Cossaboom in Palermo, Sicily, and that he is in good health. The boys talked of home but their meeting was not long enough to talk over old times. Both boys were active in sports and graduated from Newton High with the class of '36.

Washington—Finland is again trying to find a way out of her war. It is hard not to wish the little country well. Her fate has been in itself ironic and the cause of irony elsewhere. In 1939 we applauded her for defending herself so valiantly and in 1941 we started denouncing her for fighting Russia.

There is much evidence that the Finns now realize that Russia is not the most dangerous of her big neighbors. The Nazis were lavish in their promises of a greater Finland at Russia's expense and like other small humans the Finns swallowed the bait.

When the war ends in the disarmament of the Axis and some system of collective security is established, Russia will undoubtedly be generous with her little neighbor. Finland will probably survive as a national unit, independent in all that matters to the happiness of her people.

The fuse is lit and as soon as the Allies are well established in Italy, watch the Balkans explode. The invasion of Italy has confused the entire German position and the entire ramshackle political and military structure there is in danger of falling to pieces, even before the Nazis are driven out of Italy.

Watch Jugoslavia. Regarded as the softest spot in Europe's soft underbelly she has tens of thousands of trained fighters—men who are killing Nazis every day—awaiting our own forces. All they need is more equipment.

Our boys fighting in Italy are carrying a newly issued "Soldier's Guide to Italy." The booklet is illustrated with photographs of Rome, Naples, Florence and other spots the boys will probably want to visit. It also warns that "a number of Germans came to an untimely end trying to pick-up a respectable girl in Italy." A reminder that Italians are very skilled in the use of the stiletto.

The advice to the soldiers continues with the statement that Italy was our ally in World War I and never before had been an enemy of America or Britain.

Here are a few other choice bits of etiquette taken from the guide: "Avoid on every account discussion with Italians on the merits of your nation and that of other Allies. This is always a loophole for Axis propaganda. It is inexcusable to be disparaging about your Allies."

"Don't pick quarrels or make it appear that you despise anyone who is not fortunate enough to be British or American."

"Don't demand your drinks in a loud voice and consider you have the right to be served before civilians."

"Respect Italian cathedrals, churches, wayside shrines as you would respect any place of worship or symbol of religion within your own country."

"Stay clear of mobs, political demonstrations or public gatherings of any sort unless you have been ordered there for duty or have obtained specific permission. 'Don't be rude when restraining the curiosity of the inhabitants. Italians are naturally inquisitive and you will be about the most remarkable event which has happened in living memory.'"

"WALTER PERCE REEPORTS. Do not be overly surprised when you learn that the Nazi Gestapo has made mass arrangements to be found on the other side come the day of Hitler's capitulation. Yes, sir, surprise! We are only fooling. We never loved Adolf. Heil, Stalin! Heil the Declaration of Independence! Heil Churchill and Roosevelt!"

Measures to prevent a defeated Germany from retaining economic control of Europe's occupied nations are being taken. The Junkers, who are now exploiting the entire continent, hope that when Germany is forced to relinquish military and political control over the occupied nations, they will still have such complete economic control as to assure them domination over these countries after they are liberated. All Germany's carefully planned arrangements will, however, be cancelled and she will have to return all her loot. . . . Similar steps will be taken with regard to the Far Eastern territories now exploited by the Japs. . . . Feeding Italy will be a liability for only a few months at most. When we occupy all Italy south of the Po River (probably by Christmas) freeing her of German demands, she'll soon be self-supporting. . . . Military experts now believe that the Nazis on the Eastern front may have to retreat as far as Poland to make a last stand there. . . . DeValera may move away from neutrality if Nazis insist on keeping Pope Pius XII a virtual prisoner in Vatican City. . . . In order to stop jittery talks of war cancellations, War Department will probably bring manufacturing labor union representatives to Washington. Top military men will be given inside look and outlook for future production. Jitters take hold whenever we have a military victory. . . . Congressmen are upset by threat that evacuated Japanese eventually will be returned to original homes. It may have political repercussions on West Coast in 1944.

There would have been will ng to give to be able to escape the terrible privations they have endured the past few years? What would you give to escape similar experience? Jitters take hold whenever we have a military victory. . . . Congressmen are upset by threat that evacuated Japanese eventually will be returned to original homes. It may have political repercussions on West Coast in 1944.

The ladies of the Newton Red Cross and Dr. Guy M. Winslow of Lasell Seminary are entitled to great praise for their splendid and prompt action in changing the old Woodland Park Hotel into a well equipped and efficient hospital.

A Military President

It was exceedingly interesting, even tho' not very convincing, to listen to Drew Pearson last Sunday evening. His latest dope on the 1944 Presidential election is this: the Republicans are serious in contemplating running General Douglas MacArthur for the No. 1 spot and the Democrats, not wishing to be outflanked, are giving equally serious consideration to the possibility of running General George C. Marshall, currently our top General. Well, that's a mighty interesting idea to play with; however, I wouldn't care to bet a measly nickel that either man will have anything whatsoever to do with the proposition. As a matter of fact, if you care to dig into the past history of this country you will discover that military men have not fared too well. We have, to be sure, had several generals who were elected President, but most of them were anything but a howling success. More recently there have been abortive booms for men like Admiral Dewey and the illustrious General, John J. Pershing, but these two were never actually nominated. The main point, however, is that neither General MacArthur nor General Marshall is likely to be free in 1944 to bother with matters political. Their time and energy will, presumably, be devoted exclusively to the prosecution of this global war, which is beginning to show signs of coming to a longer period of than many of us have been anticipating.

No, I think we may dismiss the military gentlemen from our prognostications for the time being. If Messrs. Willkie and Dewey prove to be the two chief contenders and a stalemate is in sight, it will probably be broken by the selection of a suitable compromise candidate from the civilian ranks.

A Favorite Son Candidate

Many people have asked me if there was any special significance to the constant stream of pictures in the papers of our popular Governor, Leverett Saltonstall. The answer is "Yes." One does not have to bother the Governor personally to get the lay of the land. There are plenty of public men close to him who appear to be satisfied that our Governor is very much a Presidential dark-horse. My own feeling would be that if he came from any other than a New England state he would have a very fair chance to make the grade. Unfortunately, a New Englander usually has two strikes against him. This state does not have enough electoral votes to interest the big politicians. Also, up until rather recent years it was never classed as a doubtful state. Nominations for both the top offices, President and Vice-President are apt to go to residents of doubtful states. The reason, of course, is obvious.

Before leaving this topic it might be well to suggest the strong possibility that Governor Saltonstall could very possibly walk off with the Vice-Presidential nomination in case there should be no deadlock among the current leading candidates for the top spot. A White-Saltonstall ticket, for example, would provide an excellent balance geographically.

The U. S. Senate Stalls

The United States Senate is showing us once more how jealous it can be of its supposed prerogatives. Here we have the well-publicized Fulbright measure, dealing with post-war problems and a proper peace, passing in the House by the tremendous vote of 360 to 29 only to be stalled in the haughty Senate, where it is presently reposing in the powerful Foreign Relations Committee. Here, however, is what gets my personal goat. Of 53 Senators out of a total of 96 are willing to commit themselves. Out of 53, 28 Democrats and 14 Republicans express themselves in favor of the Fulbright measure. Of the 11 who are opposed, five are Democrats and six Republicans. Taft of Ohio is, of course, the chief of the s. x.

Now consider the showing of the twelve New England Senators. Only four are willing to take a stand; the two Vermonters and the two Senators from New Hampshire. All four are in favor. All four Democrats, two from Rhode Island and one each from Connecticut and Massachusetts (David I. Walsh) decline to commit themselves; so does Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and the Maine pair, Brewster and White. Republican Danaher of the Nutmeg state is likewise silent. Wouldn't you think that a larger percentage of these New England statesmen would now be ready to take a public stand, especially on such a relatively harmless proposition as this Fulbright measure? One Senator said that it was a good deal like passing a resolve in favor of the Lord's Prayer. If it is as simple as that, what is delaying you, Senators?

That Praying Senator

I am still waiting patiently for Bill Cunningham to tell us all the name of the Flying School who had his photograph taken in a far-away cemetery for publicity purposes. Is there a hitch somewhere?

Bill Cunningham To Speak Here

Bill Cunningham, of national fame for his newspaper columns on sports and national affairs, will address the opening meeting of the Men's Club of Newton Highlands, to be held on Oct. 12 at 6:30 p. m., in the Congregational Parish House in Newton Highlands.

Sidney H. Baylor, President of the Men's Club, in announcing the program for the opening meeting said, "The Men's Club of Newton Highlands has become an integral part of the community life of the Highlands. It is the intention to make it serve that purpose by bringing into the meetings of the club the thinking and the comments of men eminently qualified to speak well and authoritatively on matters that are of interest and importance in the lives of all of us. The objective of the club's activities is to provide relaxation and stimulation in proper proportion and we are proud to have at our first meeting for the coming year Bill Cunningham, who can provide both in an inimitable style that has captured the imagination of the nation for many years."

The Men's Club of Newton Highlands has developed through the years to where now its membership includes a large proportion of the men of the Highlands. Its membership chairman, Albert S. Genaske, said, "We anticipate that our membership will be well over 200 during the coming year, which is indication of the growing realization that a community organization of this sort has a definite place of value to the community and its residents."

Bill Cunningham, who will address the first meeting, is himself a resident of Newton, but a cosmopolitan in the extent of his reputation throughout the nation for his writings in the newspaper field on sports and governmental affairs. In addition to Cunningham, Ray Stewardson's Novelty Duo will be present at the first meeting of the club to add to the entertainment of the evening.

It's Their Night To Howl And Howl --They May This Hallowe'en

"It's their night to howl" and howl they may this Hallowe'en in 40 schools, clubs and churches throughout the city of Newton, with the full permission of parents, neighbors, and village authorities.

This year for the third time, though on a larger scale than previously, parties will be held for some 12,000 school children by groups including parents and friends sponsored by the Recreation Department in cooperation with the School departments, the Police Department, the Newton Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations.

Under the chairmanship of Edwin A. Terkelsen of Newton Highlands, the general executive committee consists of Mr. Edwin Terkelsen, chairman, 5 Crichton rd., N. H.; Mr. F. E. Wilson, Recreation Office, City Hall, 44 Elliston rd., N. C. Commissioner; Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, Supervisor Recreation Office, City Hall, 19 Terrace ave., N. H.; Mr. Rupert Thompson, Newton Chamber of Commerce, 297 Walnut st., Nv.; 60 Hull st., Nv.; Mr. N. Cholas Veducio, Captain, Police Headquarters, 30 Riverside ave., Newton; Mr. Earl M. Dempsey, 75 Neholm rd., Waban, Herald Traveler; Mr. Norman Patterson, Commander of the Legion, City Hall; Mr. Charles Raymond Cabot, Red Cross Canteen, 18 Bullocks pk., Nv.; Mr. John A. Janse, 26 Greenwood st., Newton Centre; Alderman Joseph B. Jamieson, 93 Homer st., Newton Centre, Co-ordinator; Mr. Walter S. Newton, Jr., 47 Harrison st., N. H.; Co-ordinator; Mr. Eugene L. Wyman, 29 Harvard st., N. H.; Mr. James Butler, 116 Devonshire rd., Waban, Waban Co-ordinator; Mrs. Anthony Oteri, 38 Maplewood ave., Newton Centre, Thompsonville Co-ordinator; Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLaughlin, 69 Waldor rd., N. U. F. Co-ordinator; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bender, 84 St. Mary st., N. U. F. Co-ordinator; Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Hood, 115 Lowell ave., Newtonville Co-ordinator; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Kermath, 200

Islington rd., Aub. Co-ordinator; Mr. George M. Bradley, 245 Pearl st., Newton, Nonantum Co-ordinator; Mr. Ralph F. Taber, chairman of School Committee, 377 Waltham st., N. H.; Mr. Frank M. Grant, 402 Newtonville ave., Nv., City Clerk, City Hall; Mr. Carl W. Ray, Principal, Angier School, 85 Pine Ridge rd., W.; Mr. Julius A. Warren of 115 Claremont st., Newton, Supt. of Schools; Mr. Harold Gores, School Dept., Elm rd., Nv., 354 Waban ave., W. Mr. Harold Young, Mayor's Office, City Hall, 139 Rowe st., Aub.; Mr. Irving Seiler, 12 Morton rd., Newton Centre; Mr. A. Terkelsen, Publicity, Rowe terrace, Auburndale.

Mr. F. E. Wilson, Commissioner of Recreation and Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, Supervisor of Recreation are the guiding heads from official sources, while Mayor Paul M. Gaddard is taking a personal interest in the project.

The general committee includes coordinators from each of the 11 villages in Newton who will see to it that all the grammar, junior high and high school youngsters are provided for. The past two years the plan has met with such success in keeping youngsters off the streets and lowering destruction to a minimum that it seemed to the committee well worth the comparatively small cost.

For grammar school ages, parties are provided for each grade where there are games, stunts, movies, chambers of horrors or houses of fun, and refreshments. The high and junior high school groups have games, stunts, dancing, fortune tellers, food and to quote "a swell time."

"While it is to the best interest of all concerned—children, parents and neighbors, the success of the venture depends entirely on making available to the youngsters as much if not more fun than they could provide for themselves," says the executive chairman. "And with the previous years' success as a background, it looks like a gala Hallowe'en for Newton's younger generation this year."

Mrs. Keller Is Doubly Honored

Wearing white orchids and carrying American beauty roses, Mrs. Harold Keller, wife of Com. Keller, U.S.N., was doubly honored at the Boston Navy Yard on Monday when she not only christened H. M. S. "Goodall" but, after breaking the bottle over the bow of the ship, Mrs. Keller was escorted on board for the commissioning. With friends and Navy employees lining the pier Mrs. Keller stood on the deck of the ship surrounded by its officers and crew and heard Captain Trak, R. N., read the "Articles of War," heard Captain Grady, U.S.N., officially deliver the ship to the British Navy, heard the entire crew give three long cheers for their sponsor and heard her own voice through the amplifier reply to the crew with "God bless the British Navy." Following these impressive ceremonies the officers of the Navy Yard gave a reception to Mrs. Keller at the Officers Club where she assured her friends the honor belonged entirely to her husband.

Mrs. Keller is the mother of Lt. H. Russell Keller, Jr., USNR, and also of Flying Officer J. Wilbur Keller, RAF, who returned from Africa for a brief furlough and was entertained at the White House with his wife, the former Natalie Coolidge. Mrs. Keller is the sister of Comdr. John Wilbur, USN, and also of Brig. General William Wilbur, USA, who was decorated by Pres. Roosevelt at the Casablanca Conference.

Few women are giving so generously of their time and enthusiastic energy, for Mrs. Keller serves as a Nurse Aide at the Newton Hospital, a Grey Lady at the Marine Hospital, hostess at the Buddies' Club on the Boston Common, hostess at the Trinity Place Army and Navy Officers' Club, is a member of the Chestnut Hill Canning Center, the chairman of Newton British War Relief Association, is on the Board of the Newton Hospital Aid Association and the Trinity Church Guild of which she was president for two years. She is also Finance Chairman of the Newton League of Women Voters and 1st Vice President of the Newton Mothers' Rest Association having served as its president for three years. Mrs. Keller was brought up in Springfield, Mass., the grand-niece of Horace Mann and James Fenimore Cooper and has been a resident of Newton for nearly twenty-five years. Her home is at 37 Sheffield rd., Newtonville.

Club Holds Its First Meeting

The first meeting of the Newton Community Club will be held on Oct. 14th at two o'clock in the Underwood School. The President, Miss Adelaide B. Ball, will welcome all members and introduce the speaker for the afternoon, Professor Walter M. Kotschnig, who comes to the Club through the courtesy of the Newton Trust Company. Professor Kotschnig has chosen the very timely topic "Pre-suppositions of a Lasting Peace" on which to speak. Walter M. Kotschnig, a naturalized American, born in Austria, served as Secretary of the International Student Services and as Director of Refugees for the League of Nations. He has published many books on education and is now Professor of Comparative Education at Smith College.

A special feature of the afternoon will be the display of some of the afghans completed for the Club furnished last year.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST OF NEWTON

391 Walnut St., Newtonville

Sermons—Sunday, 10:45—Wednesday, 7:45

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read on Sunday, October 10, in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Golden Text is: "I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord" (Jeremiah 30:17). Other Bible citations will include: "Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober" (I Thess. 5: 6, 8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, among which is the following: "If evil is real, Truth must make it so; but error, not Truth, is the author of the unreal, and the unreal vanishes, while all that is real is eternal. . . . Truth destroys falsity and error, for light and darkness cannot dwell together" (p. 474).

Col. Gorfinkle Put In Charge

Apologies for the announcement that Bernard M. Baruch has been named as a set of proposed remedies for the unceasingly acute manpower problems as a result of his investigations on the West Coast, it is interesting to note that a similar situation exists in Newton.

Colonel Gorfinkle was associated with Mr. Baruch on the Supreme Economic Council of the Peace Commission of 1919 and is at present a New England Field Supervisor for the War Manpower Commission.

The Advance Gifts Division, headed by Daniel E. Watson of Newtonville, held its organization meeting last Wednesday evening (Oct. 6). Present at this meeting were Charles B. Floyd, General Chairman in Newton; Neil Leonard, President of the Newton Community Chest; Messrs. Thomas E. Shirley, Joseph B. Jamieson and William B. Ten Broeck, Jr., Newton Centre; Harry P. Forte, Newton Highlands; Earl E. Millard, Newtonville; Frank King, Oak Hill; Henry T. Dunker, Waban; and Charles Myers, and Frederick J. Shepard, Jr., West Newton. At this meeting plans were laid for the part the Advance Gifts workers will have in the campaign.

Two important meetings have already been held under the leadership of Lawrence B. Darnon of Chestnut Hill, Chairman of the Residential Division. This division is made up of 4 Village Chairmen, 8 Assistant Chairmen, 36 Majors, and 159 Captains. Each Captain has from 10 to 15 workers on his team so that the entire division, when completed, will have an enrollment of over 2000.

Attending the meetings for the Village Chairmen and Majors, in addition to Mr. Darnon, were: Haskell Cohn, Irving B. Kelley and Joseph A. Spelman, Assistant Chairmen; Chairmen Franklin K. This is an unusual showing, and Newton is among the top 4 cities in Metropolitan Boston in percentage of enrollment and leads all other communities in the number of workers enrolled.

The Men's Committee of the Mercantile Division has been organized, and the principal function of this committee is to contact merchants to enlist their cooperation in the coming campaign and to assist the village chairman of this Division in an advisory capacity. The members of this committee are: Philip O. Ahlin, A. O. Barron, John Cahill, Thomas V. Cleveland, Henry Corazzini, Ambrose B. Clory, Joseph J. Dooley, Edward Derocher, Frederick J. Urge Repeal Of Some One-Way Streets

A number of residents and business men of Newton Centre appeared at a hearing held Monday evening by the street traffic committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen to urge the repeal of the one-way street regulations on Sumner and Lyman sts., Newton Centre, which were recently enacted.

Hans W. Lundstrom of Sumner st., representing residents who had signed a petition, stated that Sumner st. should be a two-way street and that Lyman st. should be one-way in the direction of Centre st., as it previously was.

In the petition which was signed by 59 residents they ask that parking be prohibited on the east side of Sumner st. between Lyman and Beacon sts.

It was pointed out that the new rule had increased the traffic on Langley rd., thus increasing the hazard to school children, and also that many motorists ignore the arrow at Beacon and Sumner sts. and drive the wrong way on Sumner st.

A member of the Newton Centre Improvement Society told the committee that members of the society generally seemed to be in favor of the repeal of the new regulations.

Service bars will be awarded to those who have served with the Chapter for five or more years. And a "Red Cross Fashion Show" will be one of the features of the evening.

DPU Again Denies Bus Petition

The State Department of Public Utilities has notified the City of Newton that the department has again denied the application of Peter Picknelly, doing business as the Peter Pan Bus Lines, to operate buses on Boylston st. over the Worcester Turnpike.

After his first application had been denied the applicant had filed a second request, in which the proposed route in Newton was the same, but which called for changes in the proposed route through the state.

Demolition Work Is Started

Work was started Friday by the Marshall Spring Company of Newton Lower Falls on the demolition of 35 buildings at Newton Upper Falls, formerly occupied by the Masten & Wells Fireworks Manufacturing Company.

This property, comprising nine acres of land and the buildings, was acquired by the city through foreclosure proceedings for unpaid taxes. The contract price of the wrecking project is $500 in addition to whatever materials the contractor may salvage.

The property has been the scene of several fires since it was taken over by the city, and several firemen were injured at an explosion which followed a fire at the location last May. The fires were believed to have been set by children. The property has since been guarded day and night by the police and watchmen and the fireworks were removed from the buildings.

Patrolman Champagne was presented with a purse of money by former Alderman Alfred Guzzi of West Newton on behalf of his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Vitelli of 158 Cabot st., Newton, received a telegram on Saturday from the War Department stating that word had been received from Japan through the Red Cross that their only son, Sergt. James A. Vitelli, Jr., had died in action in the Philippines. He had previously been reported as missing in action.

Sergt. Vitelli was in his 24th year. He was born in Weymouth, Mass., the son of James A., and Madeline Vitelli. He was educated in the Newton schools and at Williston Academy.

While traveling in Georgia he enlisted with the infantry at Mac, Ga., in March, 1940. Some months afterwards he was selected from a group of nearly 200 to serve on Gen. MacArthur's clerical staff at headquarters. He had an active part in the fighting on Corregidor and the Bataan Peninsula in the Philippines.

He is survived by his parents, and four sisters, Dorothea F., of Jamaica, Long Island; Madeline D., and Victoria Vitelli, and Mrs. Barbara J. Gibbs, all of Newton.

Speaks Over Air From England

Capt. C. Evan Johnson, U. S. Army Air Forces, of Newton, was the speaker on a short-wave broadcast from England in the interest of the Third War Loan Drive.

Capt. Johnson was interviewed by Leslie Mitchell of the British Broadcasting System. He urged residents of Massachusetts to get behind the War Loan campaign.

Capt. Johnson was formerly a teacher-coach at Newton High School and was director of the Newton Y. M. C. A. Camp Frank A. Day. He was given a leave of absence in May, 1942, to join the Army Air Forces intelligence department. He has been in England since that time.

Fire-Police In Opposition To Traffic Repeal

Opposition has been registered by officials of the Newton Fire and Police departments and state traffic experts to the petition of a group of residents and business men of Newton Centre who have asked for the repeal of the one-way traffic regulations on Sumner and Lyman sts., Newton Centre, which were recently put into effect.

During the few months that the one-way rules have been in effect on these streets, officials contend that there have been no complaints concerning the traffic situation and no accidents have been reported there.

The Newton Chamber of Commerce is also opposed to repeal of the present regulations. Opposition to the repeal is based on the fact that Sumner st. is only 32 feet wide and is heavily travelled, largely because the post office is located there, and it is also used by buses and is not wide enough for two-way traffic. They contend that if the one-way restrictions were repealed, the street would be unsafe for use by fire apparatus.

It is expected that the street traffic committee will report on the matter at the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen on October 18.

Goal Of $302,800 To Be Newton War Fund Drive

Sunday, Oct. 31 United War Fund Sunday—2035 Workers Now Enrolled

"Newton's goal in the 1944 United War Fund Campaign will be $302,800," Mr. Charles B. Floyd, Newton's chairman, announced yesterday. "While this is a slight reduction from the 1943 goal, there will have to be increased giving on the part of all of us, else we will not reach our quota. Hundreds of our men and women have gone into the service, we have suffered loss during the year of a number of large contributors, and many have left Newton to accept prominent positions with the Government and in war industries outside of this area."

"Newton's quota will be divided among the five principal divisions in the campaign," Mr. Floyd added. "The Advance Gifts Division has accepted $145,000, the Residential Division $115,000, and the Manufacturing, Mercantile, and Municipal Divisions have accepted the balance, totaling $42,800."

Mr. Floyd also stated that, "Sunday, October 31, has been set aside as United War Fund Sunday, and the ministers in many of our churches will preach sermons on the War Fund and the need of supporting the home front, military front, and Allied front partners."

The Board of Directors of the Newton Community Chest met on Friday, October 2, and approved the recommendations of the Budget Committee for Newton agencies for 1944, amounting to $184,820. The member agencies of the Newton Community Chest are the Newton Hospital, Family Service Bureau, Newton YMCA, Newton District Nursing Association, Newton Catholic Welfare Committee, Norumbega Council Boy Scouts, Newton Local Council Girl Scouts, Newton Community Council, Rebecca Pomroy House, Stone Institute, Thrift Center, West Newton Community Center, All Newton Music School, Newton Circle, and Community Nutritionist.

Enrollment of workers has been coming along the past week, and of the quota of 2400 to be enrolled, 2035 have been reported.

Witness, John C. Leggat,

Where will they be after the war?

A plane every six minutes!
70 machine guns an hour!
12,000 tanks a month!
Production records like these have astounded the world. But what's going to happen to America's twenty million war workers when plants convert to peacetime production and radios, refrigerators, and motor cars come rolling off the assembly lines?
Ever stop to think that their job—and your job, too—depends upon your ability to buy the things they make?
The best way to protect your buying power tomorrow is to restrict your spending power today. Put every dollar you can into War Bonds and your savings account—NOW.

Newton Surprises Against Brockton

Powerful against Rindge, weak against Melrose and fair against Brockton. That's the Newton statistic schedule chart to date, as the Tigers surprised Garden City fans by tying Brockton 7-7 with an undermanned squad last Saturday at the Shoe City.

It was one of those games in which a failure one week is the hero this Saturday. For it was Bob Garrity, sub back spelling injured Johnny Recco, who paced the Tigers to the 7-7 deadlock with his thrilling 40 yard romp to pay dirt late in the second period.

Garrity one of the "goats" in the Melrose walkway turned out to be the guy who made you eat those harsh words.

Playing without five regulars, due to an injured and holiday-riddled team, Newton climaxed a torrid first half afternoon of failing to capitalize on scoring opportunities with Garrity's touchdown run.

Previous to this counter, the Knapmen squad tossed and fumbled away three sure 6 point drives, with two pass interceptions and a fumble on the Brockton 5 yard stripe. The aerials were thrown deep in Brockton territory while the fumble came after a 30 yard Garrity to Morrell completed pass.

Newton although handing out breaks all during the first half, got one themselves and it paid dividends. After the Tigers lost the ball on the 5 from fumbling, Brockton took over in kick formation and Newton was on the defensive in good position.

The Shoe City punt from the 10 yard stripe carried only to the 35 and the Tigers had their fourth scoring march of the half. But, before you could say Knapman, a pass interception gave the oval back to Brockton on the 15.

Yet Newton held and the Shoemakers booted again. This time however, the Garden City boys accepted the break and counted on it. From the 40 yard line they traveled in one play over the goal line, and that was via Garrity and maulsack. Capt. Melrowitz plunged over for the extra point which later turned out to be an all important rush.

With time running out Brockton made a desperate last minute bid for a score and made good an inspired attempt. Four successive first downs, a rolling wave from the B 30 to the N 25, and a remaining seconds touchdown pass closed the half time play with an even two-touchdown match. With in the hushed stadium a Brockton back place-kicked the conversion and 7-7 became the half and final score.

The complete second half was just "he has the ball, now I have it." Neither team made a first down in the third quarter and that was a repeat of the first period. Newton however, had the ball with the two minutes left after the Shoemakers went from their 40 to the Tiger 20 in the closing minutes of the game, but neither squad could materialize.

The five Newton starters missing from the line-up were Chuckie Bryson, ace lineman, Johnny Recco, triple-threat halfback, Art Segal, hefty tackle, Dick Bolster, speedster and pass chucker, and Bob Shaw, number one quarterback and signal caller.

This Saturday the Tigers return to Dickinson Stadium to meet Malden High. Malden is tough and big and will be heavy favorites, even though they lost to Melrose 19-0 last week. A boy named Hatch does the oval carrying for the Maldeners and it's HATCH who will have to be stopped.

Now that Newton has a record of won 1, lost 1 and tied 1, they can start right off first scratch again with a good showing on their home gridiron.

According to ratings in Class A, Newton still has a chance to cop honors. Medford, champs last year, lost to Melrose too. Yet, Melrose is Class B. This Saturday Malden is a rival A team and it will look good on the statistic chart if the Knapman's win this one.

Merchants Co-op Mails Tax Checks

The Merchants Co-operative Bank, the largest Co-operative Bank in Massachusetts, has started mailing checks, which in the aggregate will amount to nearly $700,000, to the various cities and towns for the 1943 real estate taxes of its thousands of customers' accounts. Already the Bank has paid out $300,000 for taxes.

President Henry H. Pierce states that the policy which was adopted a few years ago by Co-operative Banks of having customers pay in monthly on their tax bills, has been one of the outstanding accomplishments on the part of Co-operative Banks in their rendering of service to home owners. It has not only made it possible for home owners paying on this basis to have their real estate taxes paid promptly and in full, but it has been of untold benefit to the cities and towns in having received tax payments on time. If this policy had not been adopted, the payment of taxes, especially this year, would have been an unusually heavy burden to the home owner, taking into consideration the many deductions from wages, the purchases of war bonds, and the additional living expense which each individual has experienced.

Some of the larger tax payments to be made are approximately as follows:

Boston	$180,000
Quincy	80,000
Weymouth	17,000
Braintree	12,000
Milton	12,000
Arlington	28,000
Newton	23,000
Medford	40,000
Somerville	20,000
Melrose	20,000
Everett	17,000
Malden	15,000

ALDERMEN APPROPRIATE $9500 FOR RUMFORD AVE.

The Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday evening voted to appropriate the sum of $9,500 for the construction and acceptance of Rumford ave. from Lexington st., West Newton, to the Waltham line.

Describing the plan as "throwing money into a bog" Alderman John Temperley who has long been opposed to it, predicted that the cost of construction would be double the amount appropriated. He asserted that streets built under the "general law" have been inferior to those built under the "betterment law" and that due to the heavy traffic that would have to be borne by this street, the cost of repair would be great. The factory owners on the Waltham end he said would benefit the most from the construction of this street, the cost of which he felt should be borne by property owners. He also described the project as "revolutionary" because it is the first of its kind to be undertaken and predicted it would lead to more.

Joseph B. Jamieson, vice-president of the Board, in replying to the arguments of Alderman Temperley stated that the plan had been ruled as legal by City Solicitor Joseph W. Bartlett. As to the quality of the pavement he said it would be the same as in streets built under the "betterment law" and concerning the estimate of the cost of the project he said he had confidence in the city engineer and the street commissioner. The route of the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway would be shortened by the use of this street he stated, as for some time the buses have not been routed over this street due to its dangerous condition.

Alderman Carroll Hoffman asserted that he failed to notice any valid reason from the arguments of Mr. Temperley why the project should be rejected. He suggested that construction of the street might eventually aid employment by promoting industrial growth of the city.

The amount of $1,050 was appropriated for the construction and acceptance of Cotswold Terrace, Newton Centre, under the Betterment Law. The following appropriations recommended by Mayor Paul M. Goddard were granted by the Board.

Public Buildings Department, purchase of two trucks, $900.

Street Department, new curbing, $500; sidewalks, half city cost, $1,000; construction of H-nckley rd., 450 feet, $3700; drain outlet, Endicott st., $1,030; sewers, Exeter st., $1,675; Commonwealth ave., $1,650; private land on Dowse estate, from Commonwealth ave., to Berkeley st., $4,300.

The board unanimously confirmed the appointment of Haskell Cohn, 230 Dorset rd., Waban, as a member of the Municipal Defense Council.

A request of Mayor Goddard for permission to sell a roller with an Austin engine was refused by the Board the finance committee having recommended disapproval of the request because the price of the proposed sale was not specified.

At the request of Chief of Police Michael T. Hughes it was voted to authorize stop signs on Sylvan ave., at Valentine st., and on Lenox st. at Valentine st., West Newton.

Vice-President Jamieson, who presided in the absence of President Charles B. Floyd announced that the next meeting of the board would be on Nov. 8 as Nov. 1 is election eve.

Legion Asks Canes And Crutches

Have you ever felt like raising Cain? If you have now is your chance to help Newton Post No. 48, American Legion, do it and to some advantage. You probably have given until it hurts, for the war effort, but you really do not know how much others are hurt until it happens to you or some one of your family or friends.

A short visit to the Veteran's Hospital will convince you. Buying bonds, stamps, saving tin cans, collecting scrap and turning in your waste fats made it possible for the men in the armed forces to meet the enemy on the field of battle. Many of these men have returned to the hospitals in this country and are getting better as fast as can be expected. There is a serious shortage of canes and crutches and the American Legion is appealing to you to make a thorough search of your home for canes or crutches.

For these men in the hospitals the fight has just started. Some of them may never be able to walk again without your help. Just think how you would feel if you were in their position, and for the want of a cane or crutch you would have to spend most of your time in a chair or in bed.

It is 25 years since the first World War and some of those who were injured then are still fighting in the hospitals. Let us do all we can for the men injured in this war, because it is for us at home that they are daily running the risk of losing their lives or becoming cripples.

Newton Post, No. 48, American Legion, wants you to hunt around for all the extra canes and crutches you can spare and deliver them to the F.R. Station nearest to your home or to the Soldiers Relief Office at City Hall some time between October 24 and October 30. A daily pick-up will be made by a member of the Legion and as fast as they are picked up these canes will be turned over to the Red Cross for distribution to the hospitals where they are so badly needed. If you so desire you may mark them with your name and address so that the men who receive them will know who is trying to help them back to health. Do not give a quick look around your house--make a thorough search and give as many as you can because you may be helping one of your own relatives or friends.

MAYOR GODDARD SIGNS THE HOME FRONT PLEDGE

Mayor Paul M. Goddard today inaugurated the Newton Chamber of Commerce and Retail Trade Board local drive against inflation by signing the "Home Front Pledge."

Newton Girl Scouts will bring to Newton homes and request a member of each household to sign a copy of the pledge which states: "I will pay no more than top legal prices. I will accept no rationed goods without giving up ration points."

The Newton Chamber bulletin announcing the campaign is in part, as follows:

"Volunteer assistants are visiting the stores to assist grocers in determining and displaying ceiling prices sent out by the Office of Price Administration. The grocers are required to post these official lists of ceiling prices in a conspicuous place and to attach to each commodity on sale its selling price which must not exceed the ceiling price."

"There are decreased supplies available because of the requirements of our armed forces. It is only through the co-operation of all that we can hold down the cost of living, help distribute rationed goods fairly and eliminate black markets."

"It is well at this time to keep in mind the excellent job being done these days by your grocer. His is a difficult task but because his responsibility in maintaining community morale is so great he is exerting every effort to bring to his customers the foods they want so as to keep nutritional standards as high as possible under existing conditions."

"His problems have increased tremendously by the loss of competent employees to the armed forces and war plants, and so the service he offers today may not be as high as he might like it to be. So be tolerant and patient. You can help him by budgeting your ration stamps and not waiting until the last day to redeem them; by totaling your stamps before making a purchase so as to avoid the disappointment in discovering that you have an inadequate amount; and most important, accept cheerfully his reply to your request for a 'short' food when he says, 'I'm very sorry, madam, we're all out of it.' Remember it is not his fault that he is unable to supply the merchandise."

Burn $50,000 Church Mortgage On Anniversary

Burning of a $50,000.00 mortgage highlighted the 75th anniversary reunion and banquet of the Central Congregational Church in Newtonville last Thursday night.

The event, attended by over 300 persons, included 13 members who joined the church 50 years or more ago. The celebration also marked the 13th year of the pastorate of Rev. Randolph S. Merrill. Mr. Ernest L. Nichols, chairman of the anniversary committee, gave a historical outline of the founding of the church, and brought out interesting facts about Newton of 75 years ago.

Assisting Rev. and Mrs. Merrill in receiving members and friends of the congregation were Moderator and Mrs. James A. Brickett, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Nichols, and the Rev. and Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy.

Rev. R. Clyde Yarbrough, pastor of the Second Church, West

Newton, and Rev. Hamilton M. Gifford, pastor of the Methodist Church, Newtonville, presented greetings from their churches.

The candles on a giant birthday cake were lighted by veteran members of the church. An exhibition in the church parlors, which attracted much attention, included many articles, photos and publications connected with the history of the church.

A series of tableaux prepared by Mrs. Harold Shedd was presented under the direction of Mrs. Charles H. Abrams. Mr. Merrill was the narrator.

Mrs. Herbert E. Rich, president of Central Circle, presented to the church an Honor Roll upon (Continued on page 8)

Church Dedicates Service Plaque

On Sunday, October 17, at 10:45 a. m., at the First Methodist Church of Newton Upper Falls, a Service Plaque was dedicated to the young men and women of the church who are in the service of our country.

Rev. W. Henry Shillington, Pastor, assisted by Mr. A. P. Hartshorn, as chairman of Service Committee, had charge of the ceremonies. Chaplain Charles F. Murphy of Harvard University School of Chaplains was the guest speaker.

Members of the families were the guests of honor at this service. The board of the Service Plaque is of hardwood finish with walnut veneer. The eagle in the center at the top and the crosses on either side as well as the letters "For God and Country" are in gilded plastic. The 67 names are placed each on a separate brown slab and mounted on the board. The American and Christian flags on the sides in decorative flagholders complete the board and make it one of the very finest available.

The following names are on the Honor Roll:

Advanced Gift Unit To Open Drive Monday

Expect 200 Guests To Be Present At Dinner-To Hear Prominent Speakers

With its quota of 2400 volunteer workers in Newton for the Greater Boston United War Fund Campaign, Nov. 4 to 23, 1943, completely enrolled, the Newton Community Chest is ready for the job of raising $302,800 for the local agencies, the Greater Boston agencies, and the National War Fund.

The Advance Gifts Division opens the drive with a dinner at the Brae Burn Country Club on Monday evening, Oct. 25, at 6:30, at which time 200 guests will be present to hear the campaign message from Charles B. Floyd, Chairman in Newton; from Joseph T. Walker, Jr., General Chairman of the Greater Boston Campaign, and from Robert F. Bradford, District Attorney from Middlesex County, who has been Presidents, Directors of the Chest and prominent citizens of Newton. The entertainment features of the evening will be in charge of Miss Ruth Perkins.

Mrs. Ruth Burkhardt, Chairman of the Mercantile Division, entertained at her home the Village leaders of her division on Tuesday, Oct. 19, for a morning coffee. At this meeting Charles B. Floyd, Harry H. Kay, Advisory Chairman of the Mercantile Division, and H. J. Pettengill, Executive Director of the Chest, were present. Village meetings will be held during the coming week, at which time pledge cards will be distributed, and the workers will be given the story of the 1944 Campaign. Meetings for the Municipal Division and the Manufacturing Division are planned for the week of October 25.

The Residential Division, with a quota of 1876 workers in 159 teams, has been completed with the exception of three teams. A meeting of Village Chairmen, Assistant Chairmen, and Majors will be held at the Chest office this coming Friday evening, October 22, when pledge cards will be distributed, covering nearly 25,000 prospects. The preparation of these pledge cards has been underway since the middle of the summer, and workers will be given more complete information this year than ever before, regarding the prospects they will cover. Mr. Laurence B. Damon, chairman of the Residential Division, has built an exceptionally strong organization, and the Village Chairmen have assured him that the coverage this year will be more complete than ever before.

Following are the Captains of the Residential Division in the coming campaign: Auburndale, Arvid Swenson; Homer G. Bean, Mrs. Raymond Sikes, Ralph Hillman, Alice Furish, Mrs. Charles F. Weden, Irving Angell, Payson T. Lowell, Mrs. Samuel A. Fitch, W. Stoddard Bigelow, F. Russell Briggs, Raymond Tiffany, Basil Hawkins; Chestnut Hill, Mrs. Henderson Inches, John Perrin, Mrs. F. Ward Paine, Edward A. Winsor, A. B. Casson; Newton, Ronald L. Gower, Julius Kohler, George W. Johnson, Robert P. Waller, A. Thomas Sundborg, George E. Rawson, Francis Bus-

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

The response to the forthcoming appeal of the Greater Boston United War Fund should be both prompt and generous. It is a great opportunity for those of us on the home front to share our prosperity with our boys in the service and the less fortunate. Last year 28,000 families and over 100,000 men, women and children were helped by Greater Boston Community Fund Agencies. Liberal support by country-wide war funds is given to the USO, War Prisoners' Aid, and the homeless and starving children among our Allies. Our own Newton Community Chest is a partner in the Greater Boston Fund, and local member agencies share in its success.

All too frequently when these appeals come to us, we have a habit of making a standard contribution—be it $1, $5, or more. This is not an appeal for a single purpose, it is a group of appeals rolled into one and our gift should be with that thought in mind.

To those working in stores, offices, and other types of employment where people have a fixed weekly income, the best way of contributing is the Payroll Deduction Plan. A weekly deduction of a nominal amount over an extended period enables one to make a contribution which brings with it a sense of satisfaction of having done one's part. The Payroll Deduction Plan is automatic, systematic, and practically painless. We never miss the dollar we do not see. In each store, office, or factory the man at the top should take the responsibility of selling this plan to his associates. Experience has demonstrated that, if the "Boss" will do his part, the employee will co-operate.

This is a challenge of our Democratic way of life. In the November War Fund Campaign let every employer and employee meet the challenge.

ANOTHER POST-WAR PROJECT

When planning post-war projects for the city of Newton, let it not be forgotten that a new central library building is badly needed. The old library on Centre street in Newton is rambling and over-crowded and plainly bears evidence of the installment plan on which it has been gradually erected over a period of many years as the work of the city library system has expanded. It is about as badly placed as Trinity Church at the head of Wall street in New York, and certainly does not reflect credit upon the cultural level of our enlightened city. Such a building should be erected in the village of Newton. Auburndale, Newton Centre, Newtonville, Waban and West Newton all have modern and fairly adequate branch library buildings. Newton Centre has the city hall, West Newton has the police and district court buildings and Newtonville our central high school plant and school administrative offices. Newton has the largest circulation of any village library. It houses no other important city building. It deserves the new library building when one is erected.

Such a main library building for this entire city of over 70,000 souls should cost a good sum of money. It should provide shelf space adequate for many years to come when the city will own a much larger book stock than at present. It should also provide community rooms to house all the cultural and civic activities of the city which might need accommodation. Last but not least, it should stand back of a front elevation refined but impressive and with real New England granite trim.

This suggestion does not compete with the very challenging idea presented two weeks ago in the Graphic by "Interested Citizen" for a fine auditorium for the city to be erected following the war from private funds in honor of Newton's war heroes in World War II. From this time forward all new library construction in the city, following the precedent established when the Newtonville branch building was erected, will doubtless be financed from public funds. If we are to avoid another era of the meager bread-basket provided from the federal treasury, the time to start planning is now. The city of Newton has the opportunity and is abundantly capable of taking advantage of the present situation to help lead the way to a better post-war world, locally planned and financed.

R.V.S.

O.P.A. Thoughts

DID YOU KNOW... that Governor Saltonstall, in endorsing the Home Front Pledge Campaign, said enthusiastically: "You can count on me any time to help do anything that will stamp out the Black Market." Motorists should not delay returning their renewal applications for A gasoline ration cards. The new A coupons will become good Nov. 9. Don't be alarmed when you find "coffee" stamps in your new ration books. The printing order was placed before coffee was lifted from the ration list in late July. Those new "war alarm clocks," manufactured according to specifications prescribed by the War Production Board, might sell for about anything if it weren't for price control. But these clocks have a ceiling of $1.65, plus tax, or only $1.82 apiece, regardless of the demand. Highest price for baby feeding nipples is 10 cents, three for a quarter, except for specially constructed ones. To users of kerosene for cooking and lighting, a ration for periods longer than the six months formerly permitted, may now be issued. Retailers should pay no more than five cents a pound wholesale and consumers no more than seven cents a pound retail for Concord grapes. Sportsmen may be willing to pay "any price" for shotgun shells this fall, but they might as well know that seven cents is the top legal price for each 12, 16 and 20 gauge shell. If anyone would like to know how much to pay for a dozen eggs, any size, between now and Jan. 1, ask the Price Panel of your local board. The Massachusetts price list for eggs is now available three months in advance. Eggs hit their peak price Nov. 1 and then start dropping a cent or two a week, which should be welcome news to every housewife. Massachusetts has about 250 active shoe factories. These shoe manufacturers file an inventory with OPA once a month. Price Panel Assistants reports to the State OPA office show that merchants are welcoming the pricing service being brought to them. Ask your local board how you too can be helpful. It's not too late to take the Home Front Pledge. Several Massachusetts communities plan to push this campaign during the balance of the month.

TWO LOVES

I sorely am perplexed sometimes—and worried to distraction
My heart is SO divided and I'm not—
Yet schooled in fractions
Shall I choose him who woos me
—vociferously—ecstatic,
Exclaiming loud, outlandish praise
—till
I fear he's psychopathic!
Constance he knows not of and
Often has deserted—
When comforting I need the most
He feigns to be diverted.

My other love is—oh so sweet—even oftentimes makes me laugh
Notes every time I turn or smile and—
Most faints if I should cough!
Embraces me tenderly and looks so sweet—
My inmost heart just melts—
I have to turn my head in shame
To think I ever felt—
Love for anyone but her—my
Mummy and my Queen—
But—oh dear—I must admit I think my Daddy—is a dream.

Newton in Sports

By Saul Exelbert

Spotting the Golden Tornado of Malden a first-scrammage score, a rejuvenated Tiger eleven came roaring back in the last half to outplay its Class A rivals and give an underdog Newton High team a second successive upset tie, this time a 6-6 deadlock, last Saturday at Dickinson Stadium.

Showing the spirit of "downed but not beaten," the Tigers first saw Malden's Izzy Yodlin sweep right end for a surprise 54-yard score early in the first period; then turned the tables and played a great defensive game until the passing combination of Noel Roberts and Bob Morrell teamed for the equalizer on the last down and second play of the final quarter. Newton was superb in this upset tie. Playing without star half-back Johnny Recco and with Captain Marv Meirowitz and guard Chuckie Bryson donning game suits although bandaged from last week's encounter, the Tigers were a terrific yard-gaining machine after tying the game. Even after demonstrating a great forward wall for the second time in the game, by holding Malden from scoring when it had the ball on the Newton 2, the Knapman eleven paced by Bob Shaw made another scoring bid. The Tigers went from their 12-yard line to the enemy 30 before an interception and time ended the march.

Home Nursing Class For Newtonville

A standard Red Cross Home Nursing Class will start Tuesday morning, October 26, at the Chapter House, to meet for succeeding Tuesday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30. There are a few vacancies left for this class and enrollment can be made by telephone, LA8 6000.

Juniors Send Christmas Gifts To Children in Foreign Countries

Seventy-five gift packages have gone to children in the war-torn countries of Europe from the school children of Newton, it was announced by Miss Calista Roy, chairman of Newton Junior Red Cross.

Miss Roy explained that this was part of the year's program for her organization, which emphasizes international good-will and friendship. Twenty-five elementary, high and parochial schools participated in this project. The gifts, both utilitarian (such as soap and toothpaste) and toys, were carefully chosen by the children and brought in for the boxes.

Enlarged Committee for Red Cross Dietitian Aide Corps

With the demand for Dietitian Aide growing greater each day from the hospitals in our community, Mrs. H. W. Fitts, chairman of the Corps for Newton Red Cross, has enlarged her committee to include representatives from the Chapter and City Nutrition departments, as well as from the administrative and dietetic branches of the Newton Hospital.

Because of labor conditions which developed in the hospital our Chapter was asked to train a group of volunteer workers to supplement the personnel in the hospital who prepare and serve food for patients and staff members. The duties have at times appeared to be "behind the scenes" but no one who has ever had illness in his home, or who has been ill in an institution, can fail to appreciate what friendly service at meal-time really means.

The committee includes, Mrs. Harriet Gardner, vice chairman, Mrs. Jos. T. Bishop, Mrs. Barbara Favour, Miss Esther Storey, Miss Marion Nichols, Mrs. Vernon B. Swett and Mrs. W. Frank Lowell.

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF MUSIC

The National Federation of Music has appointed Mrs. Osborne E. Brown, 801 Chestnut st., Waban, State Counselor of all its Junior Clubs in Massachusetts.

The Federation is composed of music organizations of all types and fosters interest in music in all its phases—study, composing and performance. It is particularly desirous of promoting interest in American music and offers valuable prizes and scholarships in recognition of superior work.

Above all, the Federation believes that America's youth should be encouraged to study and enjoy music and to have opportunity to be heard. It conducts an annual Junior Competitive Festival in each State. Participants in these festivals must be members of clubs belonging to the National Federation.

Any junior group (age limit 18) interested in federating may apply to Mrs. Brown; older groups to Miss Marie A. Bergeron, 18 Huntington ave., Boston, Mass. Groups may be vocal, instrumental or interested in study only.

Y. M. C. A. HALLOWEEN PARTY

The first committee meeting to arrange for the Y. M. C. A. Halloween party for the seventh grade students of Newton Village was held at the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday evening, Oct. 3. The following attended: Mrs. Henry S. Moore, general chairman; Mrs. C. H. Kimball, Mrs. Benjamin Levin, Mrs. S. H. Johnson, Mrs. Norman Millard, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McAller, Mrs. Guy S. Baker, Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, Recreation Department, Mrs. John A. Braswell. It was decided that the entertainment will consist of dancing and games followed by refreshments.

To the Editor:

The Cleveland Circle traffic hazard problem is the same as was noted in the letters to the Editor of Sept. 23 and Oct. 7, with this exception that the following notes may be interesting but that it does not solve the dangerous condition existing. This traffic hazard is especially so at the foggy time just before the dimmed out lights of the streets are allowed to come on. It is at the time when the travelling public are especially anxious to get home after a day's work. They get off the elevated cars and stream across to the buses that are waiting on the corner of Cleveland Circle and Chestnut Hill ave. They can sit upon the stone wall waiting for the buses to arrive and depart.

Now the news is that the City of Boston has appropriated the sum of $3000.00 for a shelter to be built upon this park land for the protection of the general public. This may stop a wetting by a good shower but it does not relieve the danger of accidents for the people crossing the circle.

Another bit of news is that the Elevated Railway has purchased the closed drug store at the corner upon Beacon st., upon the easterly side of the circle, at the point where the cars come out of the yard to make on passengers. This store will be made into a rest room for the conductorette and there will be room for a general waiting room for the patrons of the Elevated.

Thus the waiting room will no be needed if proper arrangement can be made for the extension of the bus lines to the front of this store. As a suggestion, if possible a shelter could be built upon the location where the cars stop now to unload, similar to many other spots where the cars deliver passengers. Take Coolidge Corner and the new Kenmore square improvement as an incident of forward planning to relieve traffic and provide for the safety of the pedestrians or car riders changing to buses.

These suggestions are made that a better solution will be secured than the one now under consideration. Those who are responsible are willing to meet the demands of the public if they knew just what is needed but most people are so occupied with their own problems that they leave such relief to others who know what should be done after they really study the whole problem. Let us hope the $3000.00 can be used to better advantage for the general public.

HERBERT J. KELLAWAY.

ESTIMATES vs COSTS LTD.

To the Newton Graphic:

Monday night when I suggested that the cost of building Rumford ave. (taking taxpayers' money out of the City Treasury for the job) might well exceed the estimate of $9500 for the project, the chairman of Public Works replied that reliance could be placed in the figures of the city officials who had canvassed the proposition.

No intention on my part to go behind the scenes or fail to be assured of the known professional qualifications of the two city officials responsible for preparing the estimate. However, seeing a bog is one of the factors to be taken into account one might wish to know how deeply it had been gone into by borings and soundings. In engineering, as in about all projects, there is an X-element which cannot be ignored. It doubtless exists in this instance.

That projects undertaken by the city in the past have not always in final costs been in line with engineering estimates, may I recount a few painful examples where the city went into the hole several thousand dollars.

Bullough's Pond development or improvement. Sewer and drain through Newton Cemetery land from Homer st. to Beethoven ave. and Beacon st. High level sewer running in places 150 ft. under Mt. Ida, the cost of which included rising $50,000 property damage claims, for which I little if any provision was made in estimates.

Gordon Rd. sewer and drain. Elliott st., Charlestown sewer and drain to the pumping station at Needham st. (for which about $30,000 was spent for repairing a few weeks after it was built) that developed a considerable of an X headache.

Upland rd. sewer and drain in vicinity of Winchester st. These are just a few X's which apparently rose up from the ground despite careful thought about, unpredictable contingencies.

One might go above ground and cite the case of the Elliott st. stable which with $50,000 contemplated grew at the finish to nearly $100,000; or the John W. Weeks Junior High School (some education in X and no final answer); and the incinerator—well patience of readers may burn up, so why continue?

Newton Centre Women's Club Rally

Despite the holiday on Tuesday, Oct. 12, which caused the absence of ten of the Aldermen who are up for re-election, there was an excellent turnout at the Newton Centre Women's Club Monday evening, Oct. 11. It was most encouraging to note that there were approximately one hundred and fifty citizens who are so keenly interested in their local government that they took the time and trouble to attend the well-organized rally sponsored by the non-partisan Newton League of Women Voters in conjunction with the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs. The only thing which bothered your columnist was that a scant two minutes was all the time allotted to the various speakers. I realize of course, that if the ten missing Aldermen had showed up, as well as a couple of new candidates, the meeting would have lasted considerably longer. However, it did seem a pity to wind the rally up at 9:30 p.m. after having many important officials rush hurriedly through their two-minute allotment. It seemed to me that some of the speakers did a grand job in condensing their facts and figures. I was particularly impressed by the efficiency of Mayor Goddard, School Committee chairman Taber and School Committee member, Mrs. B. Alden Thresher. To be sure, I believe these candidates were allotted five minutes rather than two. Even so, they packed a great deal of exceedingly interesting information into their speeches. And now for a few highlights and bits of humor.

One of the heartiest laughs of the evening came as a result of Charles B. Floyd's reminiscences. He recalled one of his maiden speeches in the political arena, long before he had carved out the splendid record of community service which now lies behind him. Having had little or no experience of importance, he started his speech by stating that he was best known as Marjorie Floyd's husband! Well, that may possibly have been true a generation ago, but it is difficult for me to recall any time when Charlie did not stand squarely on his own two feet.

This may be an appropriate time to say a few serious words about this likable public servant. Except for Alderman John Temperley, who is also retiring from the Board of Aldermen at the close of this year, President Floyd is the senior member in point of service. Furthermore, he has been functioning as President of the Board for quite a few years. I always thought that former Alderman Roy V. Collins was a particularly efficient presiding officer. I still do. What intrigues me is the fact that the technique of these two men seems to be about the same. Charlie Floyd has been the same smooth, tactful, harmonizing presiding officer as the former Alderman from Ward 2. For many years our Board of Aldermen has operated like a well-oiled machine; no breakdowns and a minimum of repairs. Every citizen of Newton should be everlastingly grateful to the self-sacrificing men who have built for us such an enviable reputation in the field of government. Every ward in the city has contributed its fair share of hard-working, conscientious Aldermen, and without the most brilliant presiding officer could accomplish little or nothing.

Reverting, now, to some of the lighter aspects of the meeting, there was quite a guffaw from the masculine element when Alderman Hoffman, chairman of the Franchise and License Committee spoke of the great popularity of marriage licenses, but added the comment that these licenses had "the lowest INITIAL cost!" Alderman Jamieson, likewise, drew a laugh when he announced that his subject (Engineering, Street and Water Departments) was so tremendous in scope that he had considered confining his remarks to the collection of garbage. (Not a bad idea, that.) Then, Alderman Scofield, having listened to a lot of talk about the number of children accumulated by his colleagues, stole the show by referring to his own very sizable family PLUS a group of grandchildren. I have no desire to play favorites or to embarrass the popular Alderman from Ward 7, but I could make some very complimentary remarks about this particular family. That reminds me that Mr. Scofield, in listing his qualifications, remarked that he had once marched in a women's suffrage parade.

Finally, I feel sure that all those in attendance must have been greatly impressed by the mayor's account of his stewardship and by Ralph Taber's brief resume of the school situation. He urged the desirability of a smaller turnover in the School Committee and pointed out the fact that even the veteran members of the committee have seen relatively brief service. We need a reasonably continuous policy, especially at a time when we shall have to get along without the services of our former Superintendent, Mr. Julius Warren, now Commissioner of Education for Massachusetts. The new incumbent, however, is an excellent man for the post. It was Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, tho', who packed the most information into the smallest fraction of time. She gave a very impressive account of our pre-induction courses at the High School, the heavy employment of the members of the three upper classes of the High School after hours, averaging thirteen hours a week for well over 50%

Especially significant is the fact that 144 pupils obtained Trade School certificates as well as High School diplomas. The war has focussed attention on manual as well as mental labor. Republican Unit Resumes Session

The Republican members of the House comprising the Committee on Distribution and Rationing of Food, of which Representative Christian A. Herter of Boston is the chairman, have resumed the sessions in Washington and are reported to be considering the issuance of an interim report dealing with some of the major defects in present rationing methods, and proposing various specific remedies. In commenting on this subject in a press interview, Representative Herter said:

"Coupons for rationed foods ought to balance with the supply available for consumer purchase. What a farce it is to specify point values for meats and butter, and issue coupons in specific amounts for specific periods, when there is no assurance that the meat and butter in equivalent amounts will be within the reach of the coupon holder. This is one of the most glaring defects of the present system."

"It seems pretty clear that in view of the butter shortage, butter should be separately rationed, and not have the high point value for butter subtract from the points available for meats."

"The assignment of the same food ration quota to all persons of every age and in every walk of life, has resulted in great inequity in reality is highly discriminatory. The wide disparity in the requirements of the young child and the lumberjack, for meats and processed foods in the rationed category, is self-evident. Similarly, there is scant justification for issuing food ration coupons of the same value to the farmer, whose food comes in large part from his own land and his own livestock, and to the city dweller, who must buy everything that he eats."

"If the basic food ration is to be the same for all persons, then certainly there ought to be provision for issuance of supplement-tary rations by local boards, on a showing of needs.

"It is a debatable question also whether any food rationing system can succeed as long as the meals eaten in public eating places are unrationed. It does not meet the issue to say that the restaurants and hotels are themselves rationed. The vice of the present situation is that those to whom public eating places are accessible and who have the money to patronize them, have an unfair advantage over families who must depend solely on the ration coupons for their entire supply of those foods that are rationed."

Save Fuel And Help Win War

Six ways to save vital fuels and meet successfully the threatened rationing of fuel oil and coal this winter were outlined today by Mr. Murray, general manager of the Home Specialties Co.

"Fuel oils and coal are vital to the war effort," Mr. Murray said, "and government agencies are urging every householder to make an effort to get maximum benefit from them."

He said these agencies now are releasing pamphlets urging home owners to install storm windows and doors to cut heat losses.

"Storm windows will save up to 25 per cent of the fuel consumption in the average home, and will allow the maintenance of more healthful indoor humidity while helping to prevent window condensation," he said.

Other methods suggested by Mr. Murray are:

Installation of thermostatic controls to avoid overheating; weather stripping of outside openings; reduction of normal temperatures in living quarters, and reconditioning of heating plants to insure top efficiency of operation.

He pointed out that with coal rationing imminent and the rationing of fuel oil already in force, family heads should fortify their homes against winter's cold.

Take a Bow- MRS. AMERICA

By conserving gas fuel in your home last winter you helped us and other gas companies supply the tremendous quantities of gas needed to make ships, tanks, planes and guns.

You can be proud that with your help, no war plant has been without gas to speed production—no home has been without gas for essential cooking, water heating, refrigeration or room heating.

War plants are calling for more and more gas. Continue to use the gas you need for essential purposes but do not waste it. In this way, you save fuels vital to Victory.

- HERE IS HOW YOU CAN HELP
- 1 Cook whole meals in oven. Cook "one-dish" meals on top burners.
 - 2 Don't use running hot water for washing dishes or hands. Repair leaky faucets. Heat no more water than necessary.
 - 3 Never leave refrigerator door open. Cool cooked foods before placing in refrigerator.
 - 4 Now is the time to have your heating system inspected. Don't wait for cold weather.
 - 5 Winterize your home now by insulating and weather-stripping. It not only keeps your home warmer in winter but cooler in summer.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD

This week has been proclaimed National Needlework Guild Week when members are reminded that it is now time to contribute to this worthy charity through the Directors of local Branches. The Needlework Guild of America was founded fifty-eight years ago, and there are over seven hundred branches with more than a million members. This means that two million new garments are collected and distributed each year, for the membership requirement is the contribution of two new, identical articles of wearing apparel or household linens, or a donation of money. Enrollment is voluntary, but usually once a member always a member as membership requirements are within the means of all, for no fixed sum need be spent in the purchases.

Governor Saltonstall and Mayor Goddard are asking the full cooperation of our people in this splendid work in order to help provide adequate clothing for the needy, especially infants, the aged, and the infirm. In this time of war, with the shortage of fuel, the need is urgent and greater than ever. The Newton Branch under the leadership of Mrs. S. T. Douglas is one of the very active branches, and last year this Branch distributed hundreds of garments and household linens through its local agencies which included Newton Hospital, Mother Rest, N. E. Feabody Home, District Nursing Association, Family Service Bureau, Pomroy House, and the Stone Institute for the Aged. Directors are now busy receiving the articles which will be exhibited on Friday afternoon, October 29th, at the Auburndale Club. New members are always welcome—men, women and children.

THE NEWTON HOSPITAL AID BENEFIT SHOP

The Executive Committee of the Newton Hospital Aid Benefit Shop held their Fall get-together at the Berkeley in Wellesley Hills on Thursday, Oct. 14. Luncheon was served by the management of the restaurant at 12 o'clock after which the chairman of the group, Mrs. Brewer Eddy conducted a business meeting.

The secretary, Miss Ethel Woodberry, reported the Annual Meeting held at the same place in the Spring and the treasurer, Miss Maida Flanders, told of the financial condition of the organization.

The report of the business manager, Mrs. Francis H. Williams, is always the one of special interest to this group. She presented her particular problems at the present time, one of which was the need of wood with which to heat the shop on the three half days a week it is open, also the lack of help in caring for the fires and general cleaning.

She urged that donations of articles suitable for making the window one of attraction to the passer-by be solicited. For this purpose glassware, china, silverware, small tables and all kinds of fancy articles are needed owing to the reticence of some of the customers to buying clothing which has been displayed in the window, only hats and shoes or perhaps a fur piece are used for this purpose.

This appeal for the above goods as well as clothing for all members of the family, is made, not only to the Board members of the Hospital Aid, but to the general public, as the hospital is an institution in which every citizen has an interest.

In closing her report, Mrs. Williams paid tribute to the splendid harmony existing between her and the one hundred and twenty people who assist at the shop at least once a month, and some more often.

All donations for this cause will be collected once a week, on Wednesday mornings, by calling the chairman of transportation, Mrs. Raymond Perkins, BIG 8123 by noon of the preceding day. For this purpose the hospital sends one of its trucks and two men.

MEN'S CLUB OF ELIOT CHURCH

On October 14th, 1943, members and friends of Eliot Men's Club were amazed to read in their favorite newspaper that on October 11th would be held the first meeting of the season 1943-1944. Alarm was felt in some quarters that this planet had been suddenly projected to the position of Arcturus in the universal heavens, where October 11th has yet to take place; others feared that Orson Welles had become a bona fide member and still others detected a scheme of Dr. Einstein to give practical demonstration of theories of Relativity.

However the truth is simple: type for printing, when set up, is tricky to read without a mirror, and the composition room did not detect the confusion of dates in time to make a rewrite. The faces of the publicity men are red with embarrassment.

On Monday, October 11th, the first meeting of the club took place in the Eliot Church parlor, where a bountiful supper was served. Immediately following, the business meeting included the installation of new officers.

The entertainment on the program consisted of music by the famed two-piano team of Frank Anderson and Barney Tucker. Skilled performers for the last twenty years, these artists have a wide reputation as exponents of music that pleases the ear.

On October 18th, at the home of Edwin P. Leonard, president, the first meeting of the Executive Committee was held, attended by Mr. George Pascoe, V. P., Edward Bliss, newly elected Secretary, for the purpose of planning for the future meetings. Heads of operating committees were named, to be announced later, together with the complete schedule for the year. Real effort is being made to produce talent on the programs of most general appeal in order that the club may serve its widest field.

The accomplishment of the club in addition to the church facilities a room where meetings can be held, with perfect acoustic properties and lighting, should stand as a memorial to the enterprise of the organization in the days before Pearl Harbor.

Kiwanis Activities

A one hundred per cent Attendance at the Newton Kiwanis Club was held Tuesday noon at the Newton Y.M.C.A. Regular business included the reading of a letter of appreciation from the officials of the Peabody Home for the Kiwanis Club's recent outing to the Circus for the youngsters at the home. President "Jim" Riggs also read five letters from youngsters who are patients at the Peabody Home expressing their thanks.

President "Jim" announced that a joint committee composed of three members each from the Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions Clubs will work together on the publishing of a monthly news letter for servicemen overseas.

Ben Louis introduced Clarence R. Mease, General Secretary of the Newton Y.M.C.A. who spoke concerning the forthcoming Community Chest and United War Fund Campaign. Mr. Mease said that Newton's goal would be $302,800, which is less than last year. There are two reasons for the fact that the amount is less—incomes are higher and there are fewer cases of relief. Sixteen local agencies are members of the Chest and there are also 17 war agencies included. In addition to this, there are 251 Greater Boston Agencies. Mr. Mease said that there were two main reasons why we, as citizens, are willing to support the Chest. First, because we believe in the American system of doing things the way we want them done, and second, because we realize that we must maintain the home front agencies on a strong basis so as to be able to receive the servicemen and care for them when they return. He said that in Newton we have some of the strongest private agencies in the country and urged that in the coming campaign all citizens give their fullest support.

A new moving picture entitled "The Greater Boston Story" was projected. It proved to be a very fine presentation of the work of the various agencies at home and abroad. The story revolves around the experiences of a newspaper reporter who is sent out by his editor to find out why people give to the Community Chest and United War Fund.

He was nominated as Governor at the Conference of the 197th district held last April at Worcester, Mass., and was formally elected at the 1943 Convention of Rotary International in St. Louis last May. He is one of the 135 Governors of Rotary International who are supervising the activities of 5100 Rotary clubs in more than 50 countries throughout the world.

Mr. Meeker spoke of the work and the post war future of Rotary Clubs. He was introduced by Vice President Orville Clapper.

Preceding Mr. Meeker's talk, Roy Edwards, chairman of the Citizens' Committee for Service to Newton Service men, disclosed plans for a project which he has been developing during the past few months, the object of which is to build up the morale of service men now serving in the armed forces overseas.

Because of the importance of the project, Mr. Edwards said that it should be sponsored by the 3 Newton Service Clubs, Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions. The plan is to mail to every Newton Service man, twice a month, a news letter or bulletin which would contain a summary of news events pertaining to their home city as well as messages from Newton officials and men of prominence.

The members evidenced intense interest and approval of the plan and a committee from each service club will be appointed to serve with Mr. Edwards in working out the details.

NOW IS THE TIME TO GIVE TIRED GRASS A FRESH START
Re-vitalize "summer weary" grass with a fall application of Milorganite. Unlike most plants, grass grows vigorously in the fall... provided dwindling soil fertility is restored by generous feeding. Milorganite is the ideal fertilizer to use because it contains all the elements needed by grass.
Supplied in 25, 50, and 100-pound sift-proof bags.
Golf clubs use more Milorganite than any other fertilizer. They know from long experience that it is the ideal fertilizer. Profit by their example. Fertilize with Milorganite this fall for greener, more luxuriant lawns now and NEXT year, too.

given by Mrs. Franklin Hobbs, chairman of volunteer workers. She told of the five groups of workers furnished by the Red Cross: nurses' aids, Gray Ladies' staff assistants, dietitians' aides, and production workers. A large number of nurses' aides is needed, since this group helps not only at the Newton Hospital but is on call for four other nearby benevolent agencies. Four hundred and sixty persons have enrolled at the hospital as independent volunteers. One hundred of these are dietitians' aides, but more could be used during the hours when patients' trays are being prepared. Training in a nutrition course or a dietitians' aide course, makes this service more valuable, but Mrs. Hobbs made it clear that persons without special training are welcome to apply. Fourteen men, citizens of Newton, have been trained as volunteer orderlies and are now supplementing the hospital staff, afternoons and evenings. Others are urgently needed for the morning hours. Mrs. Hobbs told also of the 10,000 quarts of fruit and vegetables for the winter, which were the result of the hospital's first "home canning" enterprise.

The outstanding project of the Newton Hospital Aid Association for this year is the Hospital Coffee and Gift Shop which was opened last July. The directors listened with absorbed attention to the report of Mrs. Walter L. McGill, chairman of the Coffee Shop, who described, step by step, the complicated task of installation. Wartime priorities had been the cause of many discouraging setbacks, but finally these had all been overcome. Mrs. D. Morley Lodge, treasurer of the shop, stated in her report that more than 11,000 customers had already been served, and that the financial returns were highly encouraging. Miss Maida Flanders is assistant treasurer, and Mrs. Walter M. Marston is chairman of volunteer helpers. The following schedule shows the subchairs in the various villages and the days on which they are responsible for providing volunteer help at the Coffee Shop:

Monday—Newton Centre, Miss Marguerite Flanders.
Tuesday, Newton, Mrs. Horace Cole.

Wednesday, West Newton, Mrs. John Eaton; Auburndale, Mrs. Charles Spencer.

Thursday—Newtonville, Mrs. Ralph Conant, Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy.

Friday—Wellesley, Mrs. Edward Stevens.

Saturday—Waban, Mrs. Willam Bell; Newton Highlands, Mrs. Ralph Thompson.

Sunday—Junior Canteen, Mrs. Francis P. Munroe.

The directors decided to hold their next meeting on December 7th, and the annual meeting of the Association on January 11th. Because of war-time conditions, the luncheon which up to this year has followed the annual meeting will be replaced by morning coffee and a social hour.

When the meeting of October 19th had adjourned, coffee and doughnuts were served by the hostesses for the day, Mrs. C. G. Johnson and Mrs. H. W. Orr.

WEST NEWTON STUDY GROUP

This Fall such organizations as the League of Women Voters, the Newton Council of Church Women and the Newton Council for a Better World Order are urging that groups be formed to study and discuss the role the United States must play in helping to build an effective peace. As their part in helping to create an understanding of the problems underlying the attainment of a peaceful world order, the Study Guild of the Second Church and the International Relations Committee of the Community Service Club of West Newton are jointly sponsoring a series of discussions on world problems under the leadership of Dr. Mary K. Allen. The West Newton Branch of the Newton Public Library and the Second Church Library are each reserving a shelf of materials pertinent to Miss Allen's discussions which are available for consultation and reference. The first meeting of the group will be held in the Church Parlor of the Second Church on Tuesday, Oct. 26, at 10:30 a. m., and thereafter on alternate Tuesdays. All interested are cordially invited to attend.

NO HELP WANTED

EVER stop to think that some day America will have to find jobs for ten million men who are now in uniform? Give 'em their old jobs back? Sure! But for how long? How long will you be able to guarantee them the "Freedom From Want" they fought and bled for unless you are able to buy the goods their companies will make or sell in peacetime?

It takes money. Money that you should be saving now by buying War Bonds and adding to your savings account.

How about it? Could you look a soldier in the eye today and say: "I'm doing my part?"

Kiwanis Activities

The speaker at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club was Mr. John I. Fitzgerald, Superintendent of Special Education and Director of Juvenile Delinquency in the Waltham School Department.

Mr. Fitzgerald declared that one of the contributing factors to many of our social ills is the failure of educational authorities to analyze the student during the early period of his school training to determine his abilities and capabilities. He said that the school curriculum should be tailored to fit the student, rather than try to mold the child to a course for which he is entirely unfitted. If a child fails in school there must be a definite reason for it, and individual aptitudes and interests should be given consideration. Failures do not contribute to sound educational standards. The proper channels for the outlet of a child's energies should be sought and failure to do this will result in unhealthy outlets which may develop later into juvenile delinquency; a student who is allowed to remain a square peg in a round hole can well become an anti-social person.

Clinics have been instituted in many school systems to ascertain the reason for the failure of a student to make normal progress in school; three factors are considered—mental, physical and academic. If the difficulty is physical, it is possible to remedy the defect with the cooperation of the parents and underprivileged child agencies. If the problem is academic, some adjustment should be made so that the child will do well within the sphere of his own ability, rather than to force him to follow a course in which he cannot possibly succeed. The converse is also true if a pupil has greater than the normal ability. If his capabilities are greater he should be given increased tasks so that he will not develop lazy tendencies.

Mr. Fitzgerald stated that defective vision is one of the greatest contributing factors to backwardness. Unapparent defects were discovered in 180 out of 700 cases, but where these cases were brought to the attention of parents, only 40 gave their cooperation.

The speaker summed up his talk by emphasizing that these remedial clinics are necessary in the early years of elementary school, and that the cooperation of parents is very essential. He said the need is great for the broadened programs of the Kiwanis Club to remedy the defects of the children.

President James Riggs announced that the Boston Club has invited our members to attend a very special program on Thursday, Nov. 4th, at 12:15. He also stated that a joint meeting is planned to be held at the Newton Y. M. C. A., Nov. 9th, at 6:30 with the Rotary and Lions Clubs for the purpose of discussing a patriotic advertising campaign sponsored by Kiwanis International.

Secretary Ed Pease will be the speaker.

Stokes, president of the Massachusetts Restaurant Association; Mark Strong, secretary of the M.R.A.; Harry S. Baldwin, a director of the Association; and Harold R. Dolby, associate member.

Lions Club

Substituting the Boston Host Lions Club's "Governors Day" for their usual Thursday evening meeting, the Newton Lions went to the Kenmore Hotel last Tuesday night. The affair, held on the anniversary of the Boston Club's Charter Night, was attended by about 350 Lions from all parts of New England.

A most interesting program was offered, the principal speaker being International Director Charles J. Stevenson, who talked of the vital role which service clubs must now play in creating the right kind of post-war ideals.

Greetings from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts were expressed by Rudolph King, Speaker of the House of Representatives; Mr. King representing His Excellency, Governor Saltonstall, who is also a Lion.

His Honor Mayor Tobin was another guest of honor, and spoke briefly but effectively. Mayor Tobin, a charter member of the Boston Host Lions Club, stressed the point that international service clubs have a splendid medium for the furtherance of the Good Neighbor Policy, and promised that when the first post-war International Lions Convention is held in Boston, local clubs will do their part toward this end.

Archers Take Top Honors

"Mrs. Blanche Simonds and Ralph (Pat) Moore of The Newton Archers have achieved outstanding success in the archery world by taking top honors in the State of Massachusetts in their respective divisions in a National Mail Match Tournament conducted during August.

In 1942, and again this year, it was necessary to cancel the regular national tournament on account of the war and economic conditions. In lieu of this, the National Board of Governors decided to hold a competitive mail match among all the archery clubs in the United States affiliated with the National Archery Association. Thus the national tournament was held on the fields of all the individual clubs and many hundreds of archers could participate who would never have found it possible to journey to some distant place.

The men competed in New York and American rounds; women in National and Columbia rounds; juniors shot a double Junior American. A classification system for scoring was set up for this match based on the total of both rounds.

Mrs. Simonds, besides winning first place in the State, placed high in the second or "B" group and ranks 42nd woman archer in the country among several hundred women participants. Ralph Moore among sixty-five competing juniors has the exceptionally high rating of fifth place.

Mr. Kent has had a perfect attendance record in Rotary, and attended the 24th International Rotary Conference at Nice, France, in 1937.

GIANT WASTEPAPER COLLECTION PLANNED

Plans are underway for a city-wide collection of newspaper to help relieve the grave shortages in paper shipping materials which are badly needed for packing Army and Navy materials. The drive sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the Citizens' Committee for Service to Newton Service-men will be held on Sunday, Nov. 7, with the proceeds to be used for Newton men and women in the Army and Navy.

Paper has become a critical material, as a result of greatly expanded demands by the Army and Navy, and new uses that replace even more critical materials. Wastepaper is used in the manufacture of new paper shipping materials. Collections through normal channels have failed to meet the very heavy demands of wartime, with the result that some mills are reported closed, while others are operating only part time. It is believed that most homes have large accumulations of old newspapers and magazines that can help to relieve the present grave shortage.

Newton Post No. 48, American Legion will assist in the drive.

On Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 3rd, at 1:30 at the Newton Y. M. C. A., the Newton Community Club will hold a Dessert Bridge for the benefit of their Philanthropic Fund. Mrs. Lawrence Garvin is chairman of the Committee, which includes Mrs. Raymond B. Ladoo and Mrs. William Burnett. Mrs. Alban Rosene is in charge of the tickets.

Interest in the coming City Election for election of Mayor, Aldermen, Members of School Committee is lacking this year, owing to fewer contests for office than in years past.

Mayor Goddard is unopposed for re-election and there are no contests in any of the wards for the office of Ward Alderman. There is a contest throughout the city for the office of Member of School Committee, the present incumbent, Winslow R. Howland, being opposed by Mrs. Emily E. Kermath. There are also contests for the office of Aldermen-at-Large, there being three candidates for two offices to be filled for Wards 1, 2, 5, 6 and 7.

Two questions will appear at the end of the ballot which should receive the approval of the voters. One authorizes the Board of Aldermen to fill any vacancy in the Board which occurs before the next City Election, thereby eliminating the necessity of calling a special election with an expense of three thousand dollars involved. The other question relates to the removal of snow from private ways as well as public streets. This city has always ploughed the snow from unaccepted streets as well as accepted streets, and approval of this question by the voters will assure a continuance of this public service.

MASSACHUSETTS CARRIES THE TORCH

In a recent informal conversation with State School Commissioner Julius E. Warren, he made the following remark, "Massachusetts must continue to carry the torch." Since Mr. Warren is still a neighbor of ours and since the people of Newton have good reason to wish him abundant success in the great task he has undertaken, we may with profit to the intelligence of our state citizenship pause for a few moments to consider the deep and extensive content of what he said.

Massachusetts has "carried the torch" in the field of education since Harvard College was founded in 1636. In 1642 she passed the first law requiring the education of children and in 1647 the first law requiring the establishment of schools to provide that education. In 1837 Horace Mann became the secretary of the first state board of education and in 1839 the first state normal school in America was established in Lexington. In 1852 Massachusetts enacted the first state law requiring school attendance. In 1821 Boston helped set the present standard for secondary education of the country by opening the Boston English High School, the first free high school in the Union.

Massachusetts was the first state in 1884 to provide free textbooks and school supplies for all pupils and in 1906 she became the first state to require medical inspection of school children. In 1882 she became one of the first states to abolish the old, inefficient district school system and in its place to establish the township system of school provision and government. This entire column might be filled with a further enumeration of forward movements in the state educational system in which Massachusetts was the first or among the progressive first states.

To a man of less executive experience and training for handling problems wisely and smoothly than those possessed by Mr. Warren, the powers and widespread responsibilities would indeed be crushing. Responsible directly to the governor, he is either director of, or sits in an advisory capacity, on practically every board, department and division in the state which in any way has to do with education. He is directly responsible for the operation of the nine state teachers colleges, as well as for the Massachusetts State Library Commission is a division of the State Department of Education and he also is responsible for the far-flung Division of University Extension.

Possessing broad and exclusive powers, both as regards policies of the educational system of the state and their administration, Commissioner Warren may be expected to exercise his authority with tact and in accordance with the true American ideals of democracy. While subject to no governing board, he may be expected to take full advantage of the aid of his Advisory Board which consists of six people distinguished for their services and demonstrated ability in the educational field of the state. It will be extremely interesting to us Newtonites to watch Commissioner Warren's progress as head of our vast and progressive state educational system.

Want More Men And Women

"Representatives of Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation will be at the Newton Office of the United States Employment Service, 290 Centre st., on Oct. 29, to hire men and women for employment at their shipyards at Fore River and Hingham." Ralph E. Wight, manager of the Employment Service office, announced today.

"These representatives will be glad to give full information on all jobs available at the shipyards. It has long been recognized that a great many men and women from this section would like to obtain employment at the shipyards, but have been hesitant to go to the company employment office at the yards due to the transportation involved. These people may now avail themselves of this opportunity by calling at the office of the U. S. Employment Service.

"It is not necessary to have had previous experience in this type of work as inexperienced individuals will be hired and will receive pay while they are learning their particular jobs. Women and girls over the age of eighteen, and men and boys over the age of sixteen, will be accepted. Anyone who is now working on an essential war job will have to obtain a statement of availability from either his employer or from the United States Employment Service before he can be accepted by Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation.

"Today there are thousands of men and women from this section who are working at the shipyards, but thousands more are needed. These representatives of the company will give full information at the time of the interview as to transportation facilities that will be available for those wishing to accept shipyard employment. Those men and women who wish to work at a job that not only has the glamor of building fighting ships but also carries with it that feeling that they are doing work that is of prime importance to the war effort will find both desires fulfilled in a job with the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation.

Representatives of this company will be at the U. S. Employment Service office on Friday, from 9:00 a. m. to 8:00 p. m."

To Hold Meeting On November 3rd

The Women's Association of the Central Congregational Church will hold their November meeting on Wednesday, November 3rd. There will be handwork in the morning and luncheon at 12:30.

An afternoon program will consist of a talk on "Our Hemisphere Neighbors" by Mrs. Myron Guterson, and Mrs. Walter Sears will sing Folk Songs of South America.

Plans are being made for a Home Front Bazaar to be held on December 9th.

NON-VOTING VOTERS
To the Editor of the Boston Evening Transcript:

The lack of interest in their own affairs by the citizens of Newton, as evidenced in a 34 per cent of the electorate prompts this suggestion:

That an ordinance be adopted which will provide perfect city administration by means of truly representative government.

1. The mayor, the Board of Aldermen and the School Committee shall perform only 34 per cent of their regular duties in 1937, and in succeeding years the percentage of performance shall be that of the vote cast in the preceding city election.

2. That only 34 per cent of the estimated needs for 1937 be provided for in the budget and tax levy, and that the remaining 66 per cent be saved through the following economies:

a. Non-collection of garbage and ashes at homes of those who fail to vote.

b. Non-removal of snow from sidewalks and streets in front of homes of those who fail to vote.

c. Exclusion from the public schools of children, whose parents fail to vote.

d. Shutting off of water supply from homes of those who fail to vote.

e. Denial of library privileges to those who fail to vote.

f. Denial of police protection to those who fail to vote.

g. Denial of fire protection to those who fail to vote.

h. Denial of park, playground, swimming and skating privileges to those who fail to vote, and to their children and grandchildren.

3. That abundant welfare and relief funds be provided through double assessment of all property of those who fail to vote.

4. That automatically all names of those who fail to vote be removed from the registered lists, but that above penalties be forever exacted, until reinstatement.

5. That reinstatement be granted only when applicants humbly request it from a platform in a public square in the presence of fifty or more citizens, and after a solemn declaration that hereafter they will faithfully perform their duties.

The foregoing is a hasty draft. Intensive study will reveal other necessary penalties, such as prohibiting those who fail to vote from keeping cats, dogs, canaries, parrots or guinea pigs, etc. Examinations will have to be provided for invalids, and for those who are so busy complaining about government that they haven't time to vote.

Finally, the mayor, aldermen and school committeemen should be granted the privilege (without penalty or prejudice) of soundly booting any non-voter who makes any request or complaint. In fact, there should be a substantial reward—and no closed season.

ONE WHO VOTED.

Editorial in Boston Evening Transcript—1936.

(About Dec. 10th—Newton Elections—Then Annual—Were in Early December.)

NO VOTE, NO SERVICE

Where only thirty-four per cent of a city's registered voters go to the polls on election day, why should the elected officials do more?

If only a third of the citizens consider it important to express their choice of head-servants for the municipality, why should the chosen men feel bound to perform more than a third of their official duties?

These questions are raised in a letter published tonight. The queries are offered in a manner essentially whimsical, but at the same time full of challenge. If anyone cares so little for the conduct of his city's affairs that he cannot bother to vote in an aldermanic election, it seems quite logical to assume that he cares equally little about the services administered by the city for himself and his family. Since he cannot take the trouble to vote, why should he be troubled by the non-removal of garbage and ashes from his home, or by the suspension of any other standard public service such as the provision of a good water supply, schools for his children, police and fire protection, and numerous other conveniences?

When a citizen does not vote, it would seem that he cares not at all for his city government, whether it be one of good quality or distinctly deficient. If he is content to be absent from the polls of his city or town on the voting day duly appointed, he might well expect that his community would abstain from supplying him any needed help on the other days of the year.

Our correspondent's argument has a sharp point. Perhaps it cannot be widely accepted, but its irony drives deep home. Honesty sharpens its barb.

POLITICS WITH COLOR

By P. W. C.

City Election

Never during the past thirty years has there been so little political activity during the month preceding a city election. As a matter of fact, apart from the Newton Centre Women's Club rally and a few phone calls from some interested citizens in Ward 5, I would have no means of knowing that less than a week remains before we elect a Mayor, twenty-one Aldermen and all seven members of the School Committee. Even if we were not involved in a World War, I doubt if most of us would be very active politically. This is due partly to the fact that Mayor Goddard is unopposed and partly to the relatively small number of contests for the Board of Aldermen and for the School Committee. In Ward 4 Mrs. Emily E. Kermath is opposing the incumbent, Winslow R. Howland, for his School Committee seat. For many years, now, we have had a lady on this Committee and it is doubtful if we will ever go back to an all-male set-up. However, Mrs. Irene K. Thresher of Waban has done such an excellent job, following in Mrs. Margaret Woods' footsteps, that the lady candidate may find it more difficult to win a seat. Unfortunately for her, she did not speak her piece at the Newton Centre rally and the lack of campaign literature makes it hard to size her up.

As for the Aldermanic contests, C. A. Vitt of Ward 2 and T. E. Morahan of Ward 7 failed to speak in Newton Centre. Robert J. Allen of Ward 1 might conceivably cut down Alderman Barwise's normal margin of victory, but Hans W. Lundstrom will greatly surprise most observers if he bothers either Alderman Henderson or Alderman Joseph B. Jamieson in the slightest degree. These two men are outstanding public servants and it would be a sad commentary on our citizenry if either were defeated. As a matter of fact, there are hundreds of men and women scattered all over our city who are hoping to have an opportunity some day to vote for Alderman Joseph B. Jamieson for Mayor.

Coming, now, to the Ward 5 contest, we find a curious situation. Here we have two relatively unknown men and a sitting Alderman, Wendell R. Bauckman, contesting for two seats at large. Mr. Bauckman will, presumably, be returned to office. Sidney H. Baylor of the Highlands has been the beneficiary of a vast amount of support from former Alderman Donald D. McKay, who has succeeded in tying-in the Baylor candidacy with that of Alderman Bauckman. In normal times that might very well settle the matter, for the simple reason that there are still many voters in Newton who are impressed by a high-grade list of endorers, especially if they are scattered throughout the seven wards. Even under the present apathetic circumstances, Baylor will win handsomely without making much effort.

Turn now to the other candidate, Robert S. Fifield of Upper Falls. He, too, is relatively unknown outside his own ward and is further handicapped by the fact that Upper Falls does not always seem to get as much consideration in the political scheme of things as the other three sections of Ward 5. It so happens that when Alderman Temperley began to think of retiring he did not, on the surface at least, do very much about trying to select his successor. I still do not know what he proposes to do, if anything, about the current contest. However, it is barely possible that the retiring Alderman may be somewhat in the same position as former Mayor Childs, who possessed great strength personally but who could seldom deliver that strength to any candidate whom he favored. However, if I were Mr. Fifield I think I would make every effort to get Alderman Temperley's support, silent or otherwise. Finally, it seems to me that Fifield's best chance to win a seat depends on two factors: the size of the vote on Nov. 2 and the amount of door-bell ringing which he and his supporters indulge in. A very light city-wide vote, combined with intensive canvassing by friends of the Upper Falls candidate presents the best opportunity for a Fifield victory. However, I can say with all sincerity that the ward and the city as a whole will be adequately cared for no matter WHICH TWO men win next Tuesday.

Unfortunately, many of our citizens find it difficult to get worked up over referring to an election ballot. It is a safe guess that not one voter in five hundred even knows that there ARE any referenda on the Nov. 2 ballot. May I urge my readers to record themselves on BOTH matters—the one relative to the filling of vacancies on the Board of Aldermen and the one covering snow removal from private ways. I recommend a "Yes" vote on both matters.

Lastly, I urge everybody to go to the polls next Tuesday and cast his or her vote. The record in surrounding communities has been very, very bad of late. Many fine citizens in other cities and towns seem to forget that the right to vote for our own officials in this country is one of the very precious rights and privileges which our splendid men and women are fighting for all over the globe. May the voters of Newton next Tuesday improve the sorry record which has been hung up throughout eastern Massachusetts recently.

Washington—When Prime Minister Churchill told Commons that certain nations' politicians, which he would not venture to name, are "fighting with equal vigor and ferocity to that displayed by the troops of those nations abroad..." his hearers unanimously concluded that he meant American politics. There is little doubt that this remark sprang from his knowledge that despite the war, political bickering on our home front has gun and will continue until the next presidential election.

Mr. Churchill also said something about the life of his own government, hinting that a general election (which is the equivalent of a presidential election in this country) would most probably be held after the war.

This partly explains why Great Britain can have political truces during war time and the United States cannot. In Great Britain the people can turn out the party in power if they have reasons to, almost over night. This system works well there, but has proved almost fatal in pre-war France where governments have lasted an average of less than six months. And because our own "general elections" are held but once every four years, and cannot be terminated as in Great Britain, political controversy cannot be eliminated here as a presidential election approaches, even during war-time.

As a matter of fact, criticism of the President and his administration, whether constructive or otherwise, never ceases in this country, and never will as long as our politicians feel that it may help them win the next political battle. Some of our lawmakers even hit below the belt from time to time, as for instance the few who seem more interested in kicking Roosevelt than Hitler or Tojo. But taken as a whole, our system of holding elections at fixed dates has worked satisfactorily, even during wartimes. The battle against the Democrats for possession of the Executive offices and Congressional majorities will only be a side show, even if it is an important one. The main show—the business of continuing the war to a successful end—will go on, unhampered and regardless of who is to occupy the White House after January 1, 1945.

HALF TRUTHS: On September 30, a California daily released a story to the effect that choice American butter that had been shipped to Australia was being sold to Australian civilians at 20 cents per pound. This is but one of the many half truths circulated by former isolationist publishers. Here is the true story:

An Australian paper printed an item which said that the U. S. Army had released a surplus of butter to civilians in a few towns where, due to sudden movements of troops out of that area, the butter was in danger of spoiling.

It has been a common practice with all United Nations armies to sell surplus perishable food which cannot be stored or moved due to lack of refrigeration.

Our "super patriots" however, would have us believe that foreigners can get American butter at low cost while our own people are being deprived of this staple.

It is a wise person who accepts pain stories with a full grain of salt.

Warning to neutrals: "Among the signs which show the enemy's increasing awareness of his inevitable and impending defeat," reads an announcement issued by the Netherlands Government on September 21, "are the indications that he is now engaged in safeguarding his interests by way of transferring his loot of movables, including securities, from enemy-occupied territory to neutral persons, natural or legal."

"The Netherlands Government announces that it reserves the right not to recognize any such transactions and hereby issues a warning to neutral persons concerned that they intend to act with all available means against those who lend themselves to the aforementioned practices."

This statement was issued in connection with a joint British and American declaration that attempts by firms in neutral countries to acquire German-held assets in Italy, would not be recognized.

WALTER PIERCE REPORTS: The question as to whether United Nations solidarity will result from the three-power conference in Moscow is being answered presently on all Allied fighting fronts. By engaging more than three-fourths of the entire Nazi military strength, Russia has made possible our victories in Tunisia, Sicily and Italy. That the Soviets will continue fighting gloriously and help us achieve future greater victories on the European continent goes without saying. By the same token the victories of British and American fighting men and their constant threat to the vastly expended Nazi lines in the West, has weakened the Nazis sufficiently to make the Russian victories possible. In other words this is more and more evidently a single war. The result on one sector of the world front affects the situation in all other sectors. Hitler's last counter-stroke before the Nazi fadeout will be an attempt to divide us on the political front. The Moscow Conference proves that we stand together on that front too. This old reporter is struck by the temerity of our five globe-trotting Senators. In sixty days these all-wise politicians have completely covered, studied, analyzed and found remedies for all our global ills. Until their epoch-making tour we thought that it took experienced observers months to get the angles of important situations in foreign lands. Super-duper patriots are determined that we are not to be "gypped" by a nation which stood off the Nazis single handed for over a year, or another which has thus far lost over 5,000,000 men. Maybe we're wrong!... Big shot Democrats in Congress are suspicious of both the OPA and the Office of Civilian Defense because Republicans control many of these offices out in the field and doing a good job!... Best guess as to what the U. S. Great Britain and Russia are aiming for in a post-war Europe is (1) Germany trimmed down in size and power, (2) Italy a democracy but minus an empire, (3) No revolutionary shifts that would bring Communism to countries west of the Russian frontiers. Stalin, so it is whispered, is not an internationalist in politics and is only interested in a strong international machine for keeping peace.... We may still see Woodrow Wilson's dream of a practical League of Nations come to life—and work.... Senators still living, who killed the League in 1919 will then visit Wilson's grave in Staunton, Va., and in sackcloth and ashes pray for forgiveness.

Raid Test Is A Complete Success

The Air Raid test of last Thursday night was pronounced a complete success by the Civilian Defense Organization in Newton.

Each of the 10 auxiliary fire companies responded to one incident and carried out its assignment promptly and efficiently. Auxiliary police were assigned to handle traffic at 12 points in the city where roads had been blocked by simulated bomb hits. The Medical Division treated a total of 12 casualties, two at each first aid post. The bomb reconnaissance squad had three incidents, the engineering division 10, the water division four, the couriers five, the radio service one and the canteen division one.

VIRGIL ELWOOD FOSTER

To Be The Associate Minister Of The Second Church In Newton—West Newton

The Rev. Mr. Virgil E. Foster of St. Louis, Missouri, has accepted a call to become the Associate Minister of The Second Church in Newton, West Newton; and will arrive to take up his new responsibilities on November 1. He will be associated with Dr. Clyde Yarbrough, who came to the pastorate of Second Church on September 1, 1943. He comes from schools of the country. He was director of religious education in 1921 and Dr. Jay T. Stocking came to The First Church in Newton in 1935. Dr. Russell Henry Stafford of New Old South Church was also called to his present post from the pastorate of Pilgrim Church.

In Missouri, Mr. Foster has been on the Executive Board of the Metropolitan Church Federation and the Executive Board of the Missouri Council of Churches. He helped to develop the weekday schools of religion of St. Louis, known as one of the very best of the country.

He was sponsor of the Pilgrim Fellowship of Missouri, the Congregational young people's organization.

Joining Mr. Foster in his new work is his wife, Imo Ruyte Foster, who, before their marriage in 1937, was director of religious education in the First Baptist Church of Eugene, Oregon, and later was in Young Women's Christian Association work in Portland, Oregon.

One of the unusual organizations developed by Mr. and Mrs. Foster in St. Louis was The First Church Club for single men and women thirty years of age and over. Meeting in the club rooms of Pilgrim Church on Sunday evenings for discussion, recreation, supper, music and fellowship, the organization has had a membership of over one thousand, with a regular attendance of two hundred and fifty.

A native of Iowa, Mr. Foster graduated from Tabor College and Chicago Theological Seminary with degrees of A.B. and B.D.; and received the M.A. degree from the University of Chicago. He has written articles for such journals as Religious Education, Advance, The International Journal of Religious Education and The Bethany Church School Guide.

At Second Church, Mr. Foster's primary responsibility will be the direction of the educational program, which has been developed under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. Frank Grebe, who went, recently, to Buffalo; but he will also work with Dr. Yarbrough in the calling and parish administration responsibilities.

There was an exhibition by the Newton Legion Guards under the direction of Lt. Ernest Carver, the Newton Post Band under the direction of Manager Ross Demison played.

Retiring Commander, Francis P. Frazier was presented his past commander's medal by J. Sherman Irving, past County commander.

THE HORACE COUSENS INDUSTRIAL FUND

The Horace Cousens Industrial Fund has completed 12 years of service to Newton citizens and was made possible by the generosity of the late Horace Cousens, a resident of the City of Newton for many years.

Mr. Horace Cousens bequeathed a sum of money to the City of Newton to be known and called, The Horace Cousens Industrial Fund, and directed that loans for first mortgages on improved real estate be made at a low rate of interest to the industrious men and women of small means who are residents of the City of Newton, to assist them in procuring homesteads for their families.

The Horace Cousens Industrial Fund is under the direct supervision of three trustees who receive application* in the Fund's office in City Hall. The applications are considered and recommended by the trustees with final approval by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen.

The fund so far has placed over 350 first mortgages on homes in the City of Newton and it has grown considerably since it was first established.

The first trustees of the Fund were Dr. John A. Cousens, chairman, a brother of Mr. Horace Cousens, Judge Elias B. Bishop and Mr. Albert T. Stuart, secretary. Other trustees who served for many years were Mr. Arthur C. Dummore who succeeded Mr. John Cousens as chairman and Mr. Harry W. Flitts. The present trustees are Mr. Phil P. S. Johnson, chairman, succeeding Mr. Arthur C. Dummore who retired on July 31, 1942, Mr. James A. Waters and Mr. Thoma V. Cleveland, secretary.

Qualifying Test Here Nov. 9th

The second qualifying Test for the Army Specialized Training Program and the Navy College Program V12 will be given November 9, at the Newton High School. A pamphlet of general information which contains an admission-identification form may be obtained from the high school office. This form properly filled out will admit to the test students between the ages of 17 and 21 inclusive who are recent high school graduates or who will be graduated by March 1, 1944. Students are advised to contact the High School at once if they intend to take the test.

The same examination will be taken by both Army and Navy candidates. The examination is designed to test the aptitude and general knowledge required for the program of college training and all qualified students are urged to take the test. At the time of the test each candidate will be given the choice of service preference but taking the test does not obligate the candidate to enlist in the service.

The Army Specialized Training Program and the Navy College Program enable students to continue their academic training at government expense following induction into the armed services. Successful completion of the prescribed courses may, following further officer training, lead to a commission in the Army or the Navy.

Those selected for the Army will, after further screening and basic military training, be sent to college. Students chosen for the Navy Program, after selection by the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, will be detailed directly to college. Students who attend college under either of the programs will be under military discipline on active duty in uniform with pay. All expenses, including tuition, food, housing, books and uniforms will be paid by the Army or the Navy.

Benefits For Air Raid Wardens

Civilian Defense members are entitled to injury or death benefits if such injury or death should occur even in practice duties according to the Mass. Committee on Public Safety.

The ruling is of major importance to 400,000 civilian defense personnel in this state. Heretofore questions were raised as to whether civilian defense workers were entitled to accident benefits if called upon to serve in other than war caused disasters.

The Office of Civilian Defense yesterday informed the Mass. Committee that in any natural disaster such as floods, explosions, fires or railroad wrecks the distinction between a natural and a war time disaster is often impossible.

Therefore, wherever civilian defense workers are called to duty they are: "Thereby considered undergoing training and are there by performing official duties and if injured or killed in the performance of such duties they or their dependents are eligible to receive all types of benefits under the War Civilian Security Program of the Federal Security Agency."

Local Girl Grease Monkey

From debutante to Grease Monkey... That is the transition of Miss Mary Jane Allen, daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. Lloyd Allen of 458 Chestnut st., Newton. She told her story to the radio world on Navy Day, (Wednesday October 27) when she was interviewed by Don Pryor, "Your Home Front Reporter." The program, sponsored by the Owens-Illinois Glass Company, was heard at 4 o'clock, EWT, over the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Special guest on the program was Lieutenant Commander Mildred H. McAfee, director of the WAVES.

Miss Allen, who is the last of the "Fighting" Allens to join the service, applied for enlistment on Columbus Day of 1942. She was sworn in on Armistice Day and was called for active duty in December.

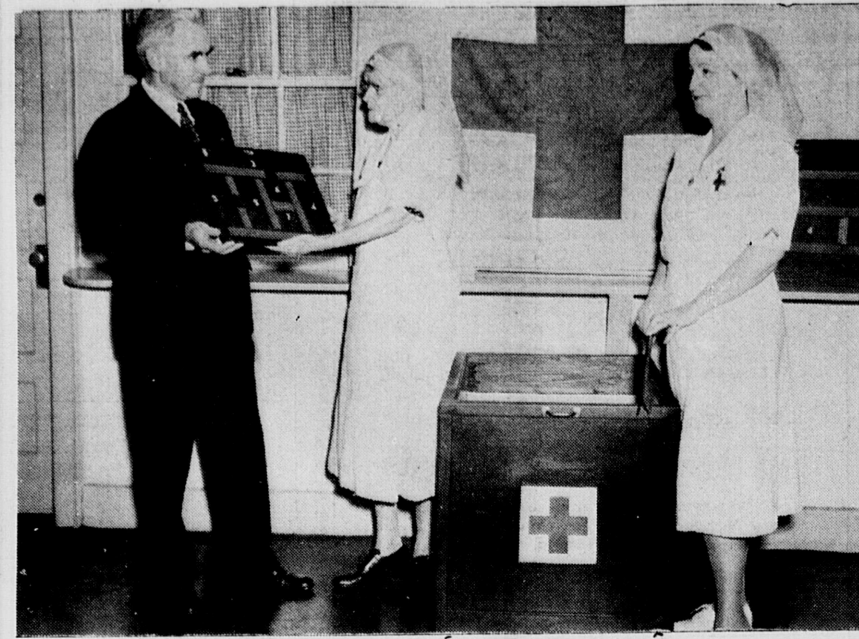

She received her "boot" training at Iowa Teachers College, following which she was given a 21 weeks course in Aviation Mechanics at Norman, Okla.

Miss Allen has two brothers in the service and is engaged to marry an officer in the Royal Navy.

Dr. Sherman Now On Active Duty

Dr. Allen I. Sherman, city physician, has left for active duty as a first lieutenant in the Army Medical Corps.

Dr. Sherman is a resident of West Newton where with his wife and young son he made his home at 80 Elm st.

Donald D. McKay presenting folding boards to Newton Highlands Red Cross surgical dressing workroom. With Mr. McKay are Mrs. Louis H. Marshall, Village Branch Chairman, and Mrs. Daniel J. Lavery, chairman of the workroom.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS WORKROOM RECEIVES GIFT

A pleasant and welcome surprise was in store for the workers at the Newton Highlands Red Cross Surgical Dressings Workroom last Thursday, when they were presented with thirty-five folding boards, the gift of Mr. Donald D. McKay of that Village.

Mrs. Louis H. Marshall, a charter member of the Chapter and the chairman of the Newton Highlands Branch of the Red Cross, accepted the gift in the name of the volunteers, and then gave them to Mrs. Daniel J. Lavery, head of the surgical dressings workroom.

This mechanical invention, manufactured by DuPont, doubles the production of surgical sponges, at the same time ensuring perfect work. Mr. McKay expressed the hope that his example would be followed in every Village, so that all the workrooms would soon be equipped with these folding devices.

Mrs. Lavery also announced that Mr. McKay, whose leisure-time hobby is carpentry, had made a rolling storage and supply cart for the workroom which would be of great assistance in the handling of the dressings.

Sgt. Delaney Is Reported As Missing

Word has been received from the War Department by John A. Delaney of 202 Chapel st., Newton, that his son, Staff Sgt. John A. Delaney, Jr., 22, has been missing since Oct. 9.

Sgt. Delaney was a gunner on a Flying Fortress. He joined the Army on July 29, 1941, and after training at airfields in Florida, Gulfport, Miss., and at the Lockheed Vega Training School, went overseas about four months ago. About a month ago he wrote his father that he had been awarded the Air Medal.

He has five sisters, Miss Claire and Miss Jean Delaney, Mrs. Helen Boudreau of Newton, Mrs. Margaret Morgan of Hyde Park and Mrs. Rita Hayes of Whitman. His father, who was formerly proprietor of a garage, is now employed by the Raytheon Production Company.

Fifield A Two- Fisted Candidate

Robert S. Fifield, two-fisted candidate for Alderman-at-large from Ward 5, to replace John Temperley who is retiring after 16 years is a resident of the village of Upper Falls and is known by his friends and neighbors as the "Squire of Elliot Hill."

Born in 1904, Mr. Fifield's father, the late Mr. Charles F. and his mother, Mrs. Flora (Scott) Fifield have handed down a good, sturdy, time-honored family tree, well-rooted in the tradition and lore of early New England, dating back to the 1700's; his grandfather and great-grandfather having driven the stagecoaches from Plymouth, N. H., to the Profile House before the advent of the Pemigewasset Valley Railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Fifield built their home in the sylvan setting of White Pine rd., in the Elliot Hill section of Newton Upper Falls, and their home continues to be his chief hobby in the summer, along with his famous backyard clamabakes, which he enjoys putting on for his many friends and neighbors who have grown to look forward to their congenial hospitality. In the winter he enjoys skiing and likes nothing better than to go off to his New Hampshire camp for what he terms "vigorous relaxation."

He is a member of the Newton Chamber of Commerce and demonstrates his community spirit at every opportunity. He is a member of the Newton Auxiliary Police and is currently acting as Village Chairman—Residential Division—Newton Community Chest.

With his many qualifications and proven ability through years of law and business administration, the electorate of the City of Newton may well consider his candidacy at the forthcoming election on Tuesday, November 2, 1943, for the continuation of the good government which is their tradition.

be held at the Y.M.C.A. on Friday, October 29, at noon, when Charles B. Floyd, Newton Chairman, and Merritt Hewett, Metropolitan Chairman of the Greater Boston United War Fund, will be the speakers. This division has a quota of $15,000, and Mrs. Edgar S. Burkhardt, Chairman, is confident that the division will substantially exceed this quota. The work of her group, Mrs. Burkhardt states, will be largely completed by the night of the Residential Division Opening Dinner.

The Municipal Division is having a meeting of all School Captains and solicitors on Thursday, October 28, and within the next few days all of the departments of the General Division will have their meetings. A. A. Robertson, Chairman of the Municipal Division, plans to have his work all completed before the campaign gets well under way.

The Manufacturing Division is holding a meeting of its workers on Friday, October 29, at the home of Vincent C. Stanley, Chairman of the Division. Mr. Stanley states that he expects, with the cooperation of employers and employees, their division will far exceed the quota of $20,000 set.

Through the week there have been meetings in the 13 villages of all Residential leaders, and on Sunday, October 31, the 159 Captains in this Division will be holding Team meetings in their homes and cards will be distributed and the program outlined for each team. In this Division there are approximately 22,000 cards issued for residents of workers who are responsible for about 85 per cent of all the calls to be made during the Campaign.

Dr. Herbert Gezork, who was the speaker at the Advance Gifts Dinner for the 1943 Campaign, will be the principal speaker at the Residential Division meeting to be held at the Newton High School on Thursday, November 4. Mr. Floyd, Mr. Walker, Neil Leonard, President of the Newton Community Chest, and Lawrence B. Dymon, Chairman of the Residential Division, will be on the program. An outstanding tableau has been arranged for this meeting and Seiler will cater. It is expected there will be about 1,500 workers present. Included in the United War Fund Campaign this year will be 264 Greater Boston agencies, including those in Newton, and 17 War Time agencies which are a part of the National War Fund. $5,500,000 is the goal for the local agencies and 2,000,000 for the National War Fund. Of the latter, over one half will go to the USO. The balance will be allotted to the 12 Allied relief organizations and to the War Prisoners Aid, United Seamen's Service, Refugee Relief Trustees, and the U. S. Committee for the Care of European Children.

Reported As Wounded in Action

The name of Tech. Sgt. Thomas F. Dugan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Dugan of 56 Webster st., West Newton, appeared on a list of men wounded in action announced on Monday by the War Department.

Sgt. Dugan's parents had previously been notified by the War Department that their son had been slightly wounded. They have since received a V-Mail letter from him stating that he had recovered and was back in action.

Other speakers were Mrs. Errol Horner, Mrs. John A. Jennings, William V. M. Fawcett of the Newton Public Safety Committee, and C. Raymond Cabot, Chairman of Newton Chapter of American Red Cross.

This WEEK, This WORLD by Ted Friend

MUNICH IS STILL PAYING OFF! The declared intent of the Czechoslovak government, as represented by Eduard Benes, to enter into an understanding amounting to an alliance with Soviet Russia, is evidence that the damage done by the French and British in Munich when, keeping Russia on the outside cooling its heels, they sold Czechoslovakia down the river, is still a long way from being undone. Czechoslovakia will never forget, and rightly so, that it was a Russia committed to collective security which was prepared to go to its aid, while France and England helped only in its dismemberment.

The great advantage to the peoples of the United Nations in Czechoslovakia's decision is that it will force Washington and London to concern themselves with devising a workable program which will bring the United States, Russia and England, as well as their other natural friends, more closely together.

The Czechoslovak alignment with the Soviet Union plain notification that the building of international political fences is now being attended to. Next may come endeavors on the part of the various present allies to affix, within their spheres of influence, segments of the defeated Axis powers, such as the British and Americans have already done in the instances of Italy and French North Africa, and as England, Russia and the United States will attempt in the case of defeated Germany. For the good of all, it is quite obvious the more powerful units of the United Nations had better hang together or they will hang each other.

Certainly it will be the better part of wisdom for the United States to have 180,000,000 hard fighting Russians as friends rather than as enemies. The logic of this is all the more compelling when one realizes that the 500,000,000 Chinese, geographically and ideologically much closer to the Soviet Union than to either the United States or Great Britain, may find its best interests represented by a firm understanding with the Russians.

There is the handwriting on the wall—and it says "Unite or Perish!"

THE NEXT BATTLE IN which the Russians engage west of the Dnieper, should tell the story of the probable length of the war. If the Germans are able to hold they may yet hope for a stalemate in the Russian theatre of war. If the Russians are able to push the Germans beyond the Dnieper, the German cause in a military sense is completely a lost one, and a serious peace offensive may be expected to take the headlines at the first opportunity.

It is plain by now that, with the prestige of its armies gone, Germany can no longer win the war though she may, by superhuman cunning, succeed in not entirely losing it. The loss of vast regions in Russia, the demise of Italy and the resultant liquidation of the Axis, the defeat in Africa, the loss of the Mediterranean, the frustration of the U-boat campaign and the increasing difficulties which are arising in its satellite nations, all spell doom to German fortunes.

The coming winter bombing offensive—directed from Britain, Africa, Italy and Russia may be expected to be the final undoing of the Germans, with spring invasion assured from four or more major directions, including France, Norway, the Balkans and Russia.

Germany is in for some "Welt-schmerz" of a new variety the next few bombing months!

PROBABLY THE MOST SARC-ASTIC and left-handed compliment handed out thus far in this war is the one that was issued by an Allied spokesman as Naples was taken by the Fifth Army. Announcing that the progress north from Naples would be subject to a rear-guard action by the Nazis, the statement asserted, "It should be a masterly retreat! They have got Rommel in Italy and he is a master at rear-guard fighting. He ought to be. He's done a damn sight more of it than anyone else!"

THE JAP IS TOUTED as one of the best trained, most fanatical soldier in history. He isn't. A Jap document captured in New Guinea by Americans proves that he is subject to all the ills that flesh is heir to, that his morale can crack, and when it does he is a vicious beast.

Note that this is from an official Jap document, complaining of Jap crimes:

"Many crimes which affect military discipline have been committed. They are based on a sickness of will power and a depression in spirit."

The crimes affecting military discipline are as follows:

"Robbery and rape (most frequent); trespassing on another's property (second most frequent); disorderly conduct (generally while drunk); destruction of military equipment; desertion; trespassing on places off limits; leaving the sentry post without permission; loss of secret military documents, especially the code book."

Apparently the "invincible Jap", like the "invincible German" hasn't got the quality of persistence. All tinsel causes, like Nazism and Fascism, and the Japanese variety of both, wither with the first taste of defeat.
